

Canada-USA Relations, including Energy and Environment

MERKLINGER, K.J.

Born in Kitchener, Ontario. Graduate of the University of Toronto and Pembroke College, Cambridge. He has served in Cairo, New Delhi, and as economic counsellor in Washington (1974-78). He was one of the original members of the Policy Analysis Group who participated in the writing of "Foreign Policy for Canadians" (1970). Since September 1978, Director of United States Transboundary Relations Division with responsibility for energy, environment and transportation policy matters between Canada and the United States.

The Third Option and Canada-USA Relations in Canadian Foreign Policy/La troisième option et les relations Canada-américaine dans la politique étrangère canadienne

HYNDMAN, James

Joined External Affairs in 1952. Served abroad in Vienna, Paris, Bonn, Moscow (1973-75) and Havana, Cuba (1975-77 Ambassador, with concurrent accreditation in Haiti). At Headquarters, held a variety of positions concerned with international trade and economic policy, North-South, European Communities, NATO, and Foreign Policy planning, Director General, Coordination bureau (Federal-Provincial Relations, Francophonie, Commonwealth) 1977-81; Associate Professor in internal relations, Ottawa University) 1967-1971. Currently on secondment to the Executive Group, new Orientation Program for the Management Category, Public Service Commission.

Entré au Ministère des Affaires extérieures en 1952. A été en poste à Vienne, Paris, Bonn, Moscou et la Havane, Cuba (Ambassadeur, 1975-77 avec accréditation conjointe à Haïti). A occupé des postes variés à Ottawa concernant les politiques internationales commerciales et économiques, les Communautés européennes, le Nord-Sud, l'OTAN, la planification des politiques. Directeur général, bureau de la Coordination (Relations fédérales-provinciales, Francophonie, Commonwealth) 1977-81. Professeur agrégé en relations internationales, Université d'Ottawa, 1967-71. Actuellement prêté au groupe exécutif, nouveau programme d'orientation de la catégorie-gestion, Commission de la Fonction publique.