

- transfer, if necessary, samples for analysis off-site at a laboratory designated by the Organization in accordance with agreed procedures;
- afford the opportunity to the State Party receiving the inspection to be present when samples are analysed;
- ensure that samples transported, stored and processed are not tampered with;
- inspect documentation and records it deems relevant to the conduct of its mission;
- have photographs taken at its request by representatives of the State Party receiving the inspection. Photographic cameras shall be capable of producing instant development photographic prints. Inspectors shall allow the inspected Party, upon its request, to take the pictures desired by the Inspectors. Two photographs will be taken of each item requested by the Inspectors. The inspected Party and the Inspectors shall each receive one.

5. The State Party receiving the inspection shall:

- have the right to accompany the International Inspectors at all times during the inspection and observe all their verification activities;
- have the right to retain portions of all samples taken and be present when samples are analysed on-site; 1/
- receive copies of the reports on inspections of its facility(ies);
- receive copies, at its request, of the information and data gathered about its facility(ies) by the Technical Secretariat. 2/

6. Inspectors shall have the right to request clarifications in connection with ambiguities that arise during an inspection. Such request shall be made promptly through the in-country escort. The in-country escort shall provide the inspection team, during the inspection, with such clarifications as may be necessary to remove the ambiguity. In the event questions relating to an object or a building located within the inspection site are not resolved, the object or building shall be photographed for the purpose of clarifying its nature and function. If the ambiguity cannot be removed during the inspection, the Inspectors shall notify the Technical Secretariat immediately. The Inspectors shall include the question, relevant clarifications and a copy of any photographs taken in the inspection report.
