

GETTING STARTED

CANADA BUSINESS SERVICE CENTRES

Your first stop, particularly if you are new to exporting, is one of the 11 Canada Business Service Centres (CBSCs) across Canada. These centres bring the services of federal and provincial governments and, in some cases, the private sector, together under one roof. Your first point of access to the full range of government services and sources of information, CBSCs have experienced staff on hand to help you cut through red tape, research your export questions, and direct you to the best sources for additional information.

Contact: Call toll-free for information or go in person to the CBSC nearest you. A toll-free "fax on demand" service lets you order documents 24 hours a day, any day of the year, or you can contact the CBSC web site at <http://reliant.ic.gc.ca>
