

ARTICLE 18Limitation on Use of Information

The Requesting State shall not use or disclose the information or evidence provided for purposes other than those set out in the request without the prior consent of the central authority of the Requested State.

ARTICLE 19Certification and Authentication

The documents, records or objects transmitted under this Treaty shall not require certification or authentication, except as specified in Article 6.

ARTICLE 20Language

Requests and supporting documents shall be in or accompanied by a translation into one of the official languages of the Requested State.

ARTICLE 21Expenses

1. The Requested State shall meet the costs of executing the request for assistance, except that the Requesting State shall bear:
 - (a) the expenses associated with conveying any person to or from the territory of the Requested State at the request of the Requesting State, and any allowance or expenses payable to that person while in the Requesting State pursuant to a request under Article 10 or 11 of this Treaty;
 - (b) the expenses and fees of experts, whether they have been incurred in the Requested State or the Requesting State;
 - (c) the expenses of translation, interpretation and transcription.
2. If it becomes apparent that the execution of the request requires expenses of an extraordinary nature, the Contracting Parties shall consult to determine the terms and conditions under which the requested assistance can be provided.
