

have quoted this afternoon, and on the basis of further evidence given for my consideration by honourable Members who have taken part in the discussion on the point of order raised, the motion is in order and should be accepted.

And debate arising on the said proposed amendment;

By unanimous consent, it was ordered,—That the sittings of this House be suspended from 6.00 o'clock p.m. to 8.00 o'clock p.m. for the duration of this debate.

Debate was resumed on the motion of Mr. Sharp, seconded by Miss LaMarsh,—That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair for the House to resolve itself into Committee of Supply.

And on the proposed motion of Mr. Fairweather, seconded by Mr. Dinsdale, in amendment thereto,—That all the words after “That” be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

“this House strongly deploras and condemns this government’s actions in having the R.C.M. Police provide information to the government as to the past conduct of all members of Parliament generally,—a course of action which would destroy the independence of all Members and undermine the institution of Parliament.”

And debate continuing;

(Proceedings on Adjournment Motion)

At ten o'clock p.m., the question “That this House do now adjourn” was deemed to have been proposed pursuant to provisional Standing Order 39-A;

After debate thereon, the said question was deemed to have been adopted.
