

2. How many Labour Unions have field returns for each year since the passage of the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act?
3. How many corporations have not filed returns under the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act?
4. How many Labour Unions have not filed returns under the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act?
5. How many Corporations have been penalized under Section 6(1) of the Act, for failing to file returns?
6. How many Labour Unions have been penalized under Section 11(1) of the Act, for failing to file returns?
7. What is the total number of Local Unions for which returns must be filed by their parent organization?
8. What is the total number of Corporations for which returns must be filed?
9. How many corporations have filed returns with the Dominion Statistician each year, since the Act was passed?
10. How many of the returns received by the Dominion Statistician are now ready for publication?
11. How large an administrative staff is directly employed in preparing the corporation returns?
12. Is any other department assisting in preparing data for the corporation returns?
13. How many persons are directly employed in preparing the labour unions returns?
14. Is any other department assisting in preparing the labour unions returns?
15. Are international unions required to provide returns, showing amounts expended on research, educational programs, and publications in Canada in addition to statistics on expenditures for salaries, strikes, and pensions and, if so, what is such requirement?

No. 1,042—Mr. Orlikow

1. Who are the individuals working for Belanger, Ouellette and Associates Inc., of Montreal, Quebec, who conducted a study for the Department of Manpower and Immigration and what amount was paid to that company for that study?
2. What is the academic background of each of these people?
3. What is the professional experience of each of these people?
4. When will a final decision be made about implementing the recommendations made to the government by the company?

No. 1,043—Mr. Orlikow

1. Who are the individuals working for Operations Research Industries of Ottawa, Ontario, who conducted a study for the Department of Manpower and Immigration, and what amount was paid to that company for that study?
2. What is the academic background of each of these people?
3. What is the professional experience of each of these people?