

Orders for Returns

DUTIES OF LLOYD FRANCIS AT UN

Question No. 800—Mr. Faulkner:

1. What were the duties of Lloyd Francis at the 22nd general assembly at the UN?
2. How much time did he spend in connection with these duties?
3. How much was he paid for his services?

Hon. Paul Martin (Secretary of State for External Affairs): 1. He is serving as the Canadian representative on the fifth (administrative and budgetary) committee.

2. His duties have engaged his full time attention since the commencement of the current session on September 19, 1967, and will continue to do so until the end of the session, on or about December 19, 1967.

3. He receives no salary for service as a member of the Canadian delegation to the general assembly, but is reimbursed for actual expenses.

CONSULTANTS' STUDY, CONSUMER AFFAIRS

Question No. 819—Mr. Bell (Carleton):

1. What was the amount allotted from Treasury Board Vote 5 for contingencies on or about October 26, 1967, for the expenses of consultant's study on objectives of the federal government in the area of consumer affairs?
2. What amount has been actually expended?
3. What, in detail, was the purpose of the study?
4. What persons, firms or corporations were retained as consultants to undertake the study?
5. Did such consultants retain other agencies, persons, firms or corporations to assist in the study?
6. If so, what are their names?
7. Has the study been completed?
8. If so, when will it be laid on the Table of the House?
9. If not, when is it expected to be completed?
10. Why was it considered necessary that these expenses be paid from Treasury Board Vote 5 for contingencies?

Hon. John N. Turner (Registrar General):

1. $70,000.
2. Nil; First statement expected by mid December.
3. The proposed study is designed to assist the department in defining a government wide consumer affairs program and in formulating its own programs, organization and planning, budgeting and information systems within that framework.
4. Operations Research Incorporated were retained as consultants.
5. No.

[Mr. Cadieux (Terrebonne).]

6. N/A
7. No.
8. N/A
9. July 15, 1968.

10. The information of a consumer affairs branch was not anticipated when main estimates for the department were prepared in 1966; therefore funds were not provided in the main estimates for any organization or work connected with the formation of the consumer affairs branch.

QUESTIONS PASSED AS ORDERS
FOR RETURNS

COST OF FEDERAL ADVERTISING

Question No. 448—Mr. Mather:

1. What, in dollars, was the amount of federal advertising placed through advertising agencies in Canada in 1966?
2. What, in dollars, was the commission paid to the advertising agencies?
3. Who were the advertising agencies?

Return tabled.

CONSIDERATION OF REPORT ON POST OFFICE
DEPARTMENTQuestion No. 463—Mr. Bell (Carleton):

1. Since the return was tabled to question no. 2,323 of the last session of Parliament on February 15, 1967, regarding implementation of the list of recommendations appearing from pages 325 to 355 of the report of the Hon. Mr. Justice André Montpetit on working conditions in the Post Office Department, how many of such recommendations have since been (a) implemented (b) partially implemented (c) rejected, in each case specifying which ones?
2. What recommendations are still under consideration and in respect of these, when is it anticipated that a decision may be reached?

Return tabled.

PENITENTIARY STAFF

Question No. 665—Mr. Orlikow:

1. What was the total number of inmates in federal penitentiaries as of the last date for which the annual report was prepared?
2. What was the total staff employed in these penitentiaries and, of these, how many are guards, teachers, psychologists, psychiatrists, etc.?
3. What qualifications are required for the professional staff?
4. What are the minimum qualifications for guards employed in penitentiaries?
5. Is there a compulsory training course for people hired as guards and, if so, what type of course, and how long does it take to complete this course?

Return tabled.