

He is an electrical engineer by profession, and among his other accomplishments studied the British Army back on the Rhine.

The purpose of his tour is to gain some knowledge of the countries he visits in order to help to form an international opinion and to foster good will between nations.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

A. S. Ferguson.