

This letter is being addressed to yourself and some fifty other persons throughout the Dominion who should be in a position to reflect the thoughts of various regional and economic groups. We trust we shall be favoured with your views and we assure you that our interest arises only from a sincere concern for the economic and political future of the country in which we live.

Very truly yours,

Robert H. Mc Connell
Oesley Cutler

Lewis W. Douglas,
President,
McGill University,
Montreal, P. Q.