

answers, shall be submitted to the Board when required, the Central Board of Examiners shall determine who have passed satisfactory examinations in education and in practice teaching.

The Central Board of Examiners is empowered to set, whenever it wishes to do so, one-half of the questions in education, and to prescribe tests of ability to teach and to govern, which must be followed in such examinations.

33 The form of the first-class high school diploma shall give the standing of the graduates in Mathematics, Latin, Greek, French, and in subjects in which the graduates have obtained university honours.

34 When a teacher in training, through sickness or other cause, fails to pass the requisite examinations to receive a diploma, the Dean of the School for Teachers may upon a two-thirds vote of the members of the Central Board present at the discussion of the case, recommend a diploma, permit the return of the candidate to renew his course or permit him to return for any of his examinations at the close of a subsequent year, and, if he be successful, recommend him for a diploma.

35 The expenses of the Central Board of Examiners shall be paid from the funds of the Protestant Committee.