

announcement to our own Universities this spring of these possibilities, and if we receive any applications we might have them sent over to be considered by the Colonial Office on their own merits, before we draw up a special scheme.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Robert Palmer

President.