SECT. XVI.—The person acting as constable at the sittings of the court for the revision of any voters' lists shall as such constable be entitled to the following but no other fees or compensation; that is to say:

1. The sum of one dollar and fifty cents for each day's attendance as such constable:

American lu galigration

2. For the service of any process or notice including the service, the receipt and the return thereof and all other services connected therewith when allowed by the Judge a sum not exceeding ten cents per mile one way for each mile actually and necessarily travelled to effect such service.

SECTION 17 provides for the payment of the compensation under Sections 15 and 16 by the Municipality whose List is in question.

SEOT. XV .- When this provided by any by the or can

It has not been deemed necessary to say anything except as to those sections of the above Act which affect Clerks of Municipalities, for whom these "Suggestions" are chiefly intended. A reference is advised, if necessary, to the Act itself, for those sections not given above in full.

are to be performed by him upon and after the dedeing with him of any complaint or superd under said Act, then such Clerk shall not in report of such duties be caritiled to or be allowed by the County Cudge, nor shall there be taxed to him, any fee, payment, ost or charge whateverse, but when it is not intended by such by law or contract to provide for compensed on for the recional same of such last mentioned duties, then such Clerk shall be ensured in respect their of the fallowing but to no other too or expectation, that is to say.

1. To the sum of three dollars for each day's attendance on the

2. To the actual and reasonable distrurse actus necessarity incurred by how in serving the notices of compaint or appeal when served by homself.

This of course regulates top doubtiles existed as its the meaning of "reaching course continuous taut." ander Section 10 of tights before and give to discretion to the dudge in the market.

In discretion to the dudge in the market.

es that his negligible to be who has