

CONTENTS.

ix

Mr. West, President of the Royal Academy. Duels between Naval Officers of the United States and British Officers at Gibraltar.—Interview with the Colonial Secretary of State on this subject. Dinner at the Middle Temple with Mr. George Joy. . Dinner at Lord Harrowby's; at Lord Castlereagh's; at Mr. Robinson's..... 275

CHAPTER XVI.

Visit from Mr. Wilberforce—the Slave Trade—Piracy—Impressment. Cato Street Conspiracy—Five of the Conspirators convicted and executed. Droits of the Crown. Dinner at Lord Melville's—death of Commodore Decatur. Visit to the Royal Arsenal at Woolwich. Arrival of the Queen, late Princess of Wales, at Dover. Special audience of the King. Dinner at Prince Leopold's. Dinner at Lord Castlereagh's—Unusual incidents at it. The King's Levee—Conversation with Mr. Canning on the public speaking in the two Houses of Parliament. Dinner at Mr. Canning's,..... 294

CHAPTER XVII.

Interview with Lord Castlereagh on the West India Trade, and other subjects. Umpirage of the Emperor of Russia, under the Disputed Article of the Treaty of Ghent. Dinner at the Duke of Wellington's; at Lord Castlereagh's; at Mr. Planta's; at the Duke of Sussex's. The Dispute between the King and Queen. Revolution in Spain. Course of the British Government in relation to it..... 315

CHAPTER XVIII.

Trial of the Queen. American Vessels bound to French Ports, land their Cargoes in England under the Warehousing System. Continuation of the Queen's Trial.—Mr. Brougham. Dinner at the French Ambassador's at Harrow, in honor of the Birth of the Duke of Bordeaux. Ratification of the Florida Treaty. Dinner at the Spanish Ambassador's. Termination of the Queen's Trial.—London illumi-