

CONTENTS.

LETTER I.

Montreal—Emigrants landing—Story of the Cabin Boy—Outskirts of Montreal—La Chine—Fine scene there—Calash and Driver—French Canadians—American Innkeeper—St Ann's—River Ottawa—Forests—Appearance of the country and crops—Boy and broad-rimmed hat—Rapids of Les Cedres—Navigation of the St Lawrence.....17

LETTER II.

Glengary Settlement—Settler's account of it—Present state of the settlement—Scenery there—Age of the trees—Nature of the soil—Prospects of the settlers—Monotonous scenery—Village of Prescott—Brokeville—Carousing scene there—Tavern and ball-room.....34

LETTER III.

Bateaux—Water of the St Lawrence—Its singular effects—Canadian boatmen—Lake of the Thousand Islands—Currents—We land upon an island—False alarm—Deer-hunt by torch-light—Party of Indians arrive—Their dress and behaviour—Supper party—Picturesque groups—A day upon the banks of the St Lawrence—Adventure with a canoe—Tavern, and host and hostess—Mouth of Lake Ontario—View of Kingston Bay 43

LETTER IV.

Pleasures of a good tavern—Town of Kingston—Frigates—Naval depot and armoury—Kingston during the last war—Arrivals of emigrants—Equality and the bricklayer—Steam-boat Frontenac—Pleasure of travelling by steam—Lake Ontario—Septennial increase of its waters—Stormy night—Error in the reckoning—Arrival at York.....57