THE
ANGLO-AMERICAN MAGAZINE

WITH THE JULY NUMBER,

Commenced its FIFTH VOLUME, the fruits of the past Two Years labour, have been presented to the Public; this is acknowledged by all who have studied its pages carefully, to be the best

MAGAZINE

Published on the North American Continent.

To those who look unconcernedly on and say,—Who ever heard of anything good in Canada? the four handsome volumes already completed, are pointed out as an earnest of what may be expected to follow from such a beginning. In addition to a rich and varied table of contents,—The

HISTORY OF THE WAR OF 1812,

Has been added in numbers, a work of itself worth the year's subscription. Also,—A thorough

REVIEW OF ABBOTT'S NAPOLEON.

Parties who kindly patronised the work at its outset, but declined risking the subscription in advance, are respectfully invited to remit the amount now due, to the office of publication, as, with all the talent employed, there is yet lacking that faculty which enables the Publishers to obtain Editors, Engravers, Printers, paper and ink, on the same terms which they have taken.

The friends of the Magazine are respectfully solicited to do all in their power to bring it before as many of their friends as it is in their power to do.

To all paying in advance the Magazine is sent free of postage.

The History of the War was commenced with the Second Volume, so that subscribers who desire that work without the earlier numbers can be supplied with the Magazine from that date.

The Second, Third, and Fourth Volumes may be had bound in handsome cloth covers, at 10s. each, or the covers separate, at 1s. 3d. each.

THE FIRST VOLUME IS OUT OF PRINT.
