

United States. One, absent ten years, married and settled in Washborne, Maine. Another, absent ten years, married and settled in Lubeck. Another, absent four years, married and settled in Boston, Massachusetts. Another, absent three years, married, living in Acton, Massachusetts. Another, absent seven years, married, settled in Ashmount, Massachusetts. Another, absent four years, married and settled in Brockton, Massachusetts. Of these, four are women and two men. The next is a family of four, of which the first is a woman, absent twenty-two years, resident of the United States. The next, absent seventeen years, a resident of the United States. The next, absent eleven years, residing in the United States; and the last, seven years, and resident in the United States. The next is a family of five. The first one, absent twelve years, married to an American citizen, living in Hyde Park, Massachusetts. The next is a family of eight. The first one of this family became a resident of the United States in 1878; another became a resident in 1884; another in 1883; another in 1880; another in 1883; another in 1885; another in 1889. The next family is composed of four. The eldest is a daughter, a woman married, and who has a family, living in Stoneham, Massachusetts. The next has a family living in Carleton, N.B. Of course she would go into the census, but not in that section; and the other two are living in New Brunswick. The next one, a gentleman named Lombard, living in Dorchester, Massachusetts, a doctor, practising four years, and naturalized American citizen. I have had the pleasure of being at his house in Dorchester. He is an American citizen, and was in the States four years when the census was taken. The next is a family, two of which have been six years in Marino, California, and the third seven years in Boston, Mass. Another family of four, of which the first was absent thirteen years, a naturalized citizen, captain of an American vessel. The next, absent five years, a naturalized American citizen. The next, absent seven years, a herdsman, living in the Western States; and the last, absent four years, is a mate with his brother, the first one to whom I alluded, who is a sea captain, and a naturalized American citizen. Another family of three, living, respectively, in Massachusetts,
