BABE ADAMS IN FORM CUBS NEARLY BLANKED

PITTSBURG, Sept. 26.—Pittsburg took the final game of the season at Forbes Field from Chicago by the score of 6 to 1. Adams pitched fine ball for Pittsburg, and but for two passed balls by Simeh in the eighth innings Zimmerman would not have scored with Chicago's only run. Adams struck out ten men, the season's record at Forbes Field. Saler was his victim three times. Score: R.H.E. Chicago ... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 -1 9 2 Chicago ... 0 1 1 0 4 0 0 0 -6 11 1

BOEHLING VERY WILD BUT GOOD IN PINCHES

ses

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Bochling was very wild today, but whenever the New Yorks had a chance to score they hit into a double-play. Washington made no fewer than five of these plays, which killed all of the locals' chances for victory, the visitors winning by a score of 3 to 0. Mc-Hale pitched a good game for New York, but the Senators bunched their hits. The score:

TIMELY HITTING BY CHICAGO WHITE SOX

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Pitcher Leverem of St. Louis made his Chicago debut to day, and, altho he held the locals to five hits and struck out ten men, he lost after the ten innings, 2 to 3. A large delegation of Leverenz's friends, in addition to a great many bankers, who are attending the State Bankers' Convention, were present. Captain Harry Lord and First Baseman Hal Chase did not arrive from the east in time to play today. Score:

St. Louis ... 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 —2 9 (Chicago ... 0 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 —3 5 Batteries—Leverenz and Agnew: Benny Sept.

BRIDE COULD WAIT
TILL HE FOUND DOG

CARLISLE, Par., Sept. 22.—So anxious was Charles Humer, noted wing shot, to recover a black and white pointer that he had lost that he forgot that it was his wedding day. When he was told an hour before the wedding by his kennel keeper that the dog had disappeared he rushed out, of the house and started hunting thru the woods of his estate.

The prospective bride, was in tears at her home. The wedding guests were beginning to whisper and to nudge one another, and the minister who was engaged to tie the knot fumbled at his prayer book and tried to look unconcerned.

In the meantime Humer had found the dog and was arguing its ownership with a magistrate when one of the wedding guests called him on the telephoae and reminded him it was his wedding day.

Society Revives
Childhood Games

Young Society Maids Are Indulging in Many Long Forgotten Pastimes.

Society has gone back to its child-hood games. Following the example of Lennox and Newport, the younger society set along the north shore is whiling away the few remaining weeks before returning to the city by indulging in almost forgotten games of childhood.

fun because they were so tired of bridge and tennis and riding. But now they are taking it up because it is really such good sport. They rome all over the lawns and hide behind every shrub and bush. They shrield like 3-year-olds, and one 45-year-old matron, who certainly doesn't look a grandmother, rivals here 4-year-old grandson in peals of laughter and it lightfooted sprints across the grass. The really pet game is a revival of blind man's buff. Only this time they have a doubly hard task. The girls first pick nonegays of roses of geraniums, forget me hold or mignorette, and fastening them in the buttonholes of the young men and in the hair of the girls they command the "blind man" to catch the person and tell the flower from the smell, and then the name of the person.

"Hide and seek" is another favorite and the old pet running games, "run-
