

of the same, or infection. There is also much other work that would very properly conduct of one of them under their notice, and should receive their attention. A benefit, tore up a great number of hotel keepers throughout the Dominion make a household linen practice of swindling every bag-man that stops at their house. bagging that did. Knowing them to be a liberal set of fellows, they invariably stretch returned with this their bill to the utmost limits they think the victim's patience my impressions of will stand, and often overshoot the mark and practice downright some neighboring extortion. A very effective remedy to bring into use against such considering by these sharks, would be for the manager of the society to request information satisfied with its tion of all such occurrences, and upon three substantiated reports put in on a vigor being sent in against any hotel for such practices, let him by circulate have required the lar or otherwise notify the whole body of travellers, specify the or the successful complaints made, and call upon them as members of the society to mention the first shew their disapproval by all agreeing to transfer their custom to k to peer into the some other inn in the same town. Such a course as this would error. That first very speedily remedy the evil now so often complained of. The so powerfully did same attention might also with beneficial results be bestowed upon ce on my mind, many livery stable keepers who pay but little attention to that going down the golden adage, "Do unto others as you would they should do unto myself at all." I you." All such avaricious, grasping individuals should be taught what I have just a lesson, and the only effectual way to accomplish the same is to all possible on a pinch their pockets. Through its magic influence you can reach mind for a week their soul, but in no other way can it be done. The amount of night settle over money expended in the shape of travelling expenses by the commercial men of the country, has after a very careful and moderate are, one doubly calculation been estimated at four thousand six hundred dollars per ere a bounteous day, or allowing an average of six months on the road for each , airy chambers man, it reaches the formidable amount of $837,200 per annum. ber of the frater- Surely a body of men disbursing such a sum total yearly should be e to live in, it entitled to receive good accommodation in return; but such a desirable's amusement, consumption can hardly be expected unless some such the old adage that plan as before mentioned is adopted. Once organize and unite ose who do less together for mutual benefit; give these land sharks to understand pronounce this that if they swindle one member they also insult the whole fraternity, and run the risk of losing the patronage of each and all; im- travellers of Can- press these facts upon their minds, and believe me, just causes of in England, and complaint will very seldom arise. There are many men both west benefit and pro- and east of Toronto whose conduct has been so much the reverse of