

This modified ballot has been tested by use in the bye-elections since 1901 and has proved a great success. The Act of 1901 threw on the King's Printer the duty of sending out the paper to the Returning Officers. When the paper was sent out for the election of 1900 it was cut to a suitable size. Patterns were provided of model ballots on which ruled line showed the method of printing. When the election came to be worked out some of the local printers
