WADLEIGH'S HEAD GEAR PARLORS,
476 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., Feb. 5th, 1883.

L. W. SCOTT, Esq.,

DEAR SIR,—Pardon me for taking this way of thanking you, as sometimes a few words encourage one when starting a new enterprise, as I judged this was.

While visiting your city during Carnival season, I had occasion to patronize a laundry, and on my way down town, I, by chance, dropped into your place. In a few days I received my parcel, and much to my surprise found the best laundried linen I ever saw. I had always thought we had good city, and even the Troy, laundries to boast of, but yours beats them all.

Montrealers certainly ought to feel proud of such an establishment, for of all things that a man pays out his money for with pleasure, it is when he gets a good, clean-washed and nicely-laundried linen.

Wishing you every success in your undertaking,

I remain, respectfully yours,

R. H. WADLEIGH.
