

ments of the City as fall within the department of such Officer, with his reasons at large.

X.

Course in case of emergency.

No Report of a Board or Committee recommending any expenditure that should fall under the preceding section shall be received by the Council, unaccompanied by the Report of the proper Officer, save in a case of emergency, to be fully shown in the Report of the Committee, and assented to by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Council present.

XI.

Proper officer to report before Council entertain resolution for expenditure.

No Resolution authorising any expenditure for any of the purposes embraced in the preceding section shall be entertained by the Council, without a like Report having been first obtained from the proper officer.

XII.

Course in case member or officer of Council is interested in improvements.

When any Board or Committee recommends, or any member of the Council proposes to the Council the making of any improvement or the expending of any money, for or in respect of property of any kind, it shall be the duty of such Board or Committee, or of the member introducing the proposal, as the case may be, to ascertain as far as practicable, whether such improvement passes through or along any property in which any member of the Council or Officer of the Corporation is interested or whether any such member or officer is interested in the property for or in respect of which the money is proposed to be expended, and to state to the Council how the fact is in those respects, so far as ascertainable. This in the case of a Board or Committee, shall be done in the report containing their
