

MUNITIONS CALL FOR COAL SAVING

Every Ounce Needed to Keep Output Up to Maximum.

"The coal or casualties," declared R. Home Smith, the Ontario fuel administrator last night. "Coal is required for the production or transportation of everything the soldier needs overseas and every ton of coal we save means munitions, ships or other supplies. To get the proper attitude toward the coal crisis we must bear that thought in mind always. Coal must not be wasted by doing so we waste the lives of the boys at the front by failure to send them the shells and other munitions they need."

"Coal consumers should not fall themselves into a sense of false security by the talk of peace," he warned. "Even if peace were declared the United States and the other allies know the German character too well to be caught off their guard. They will not cease their munition and shipbuilding program and while that lasts the abnormal demand for coal, and the necessity for conservation, will continue."

"The movement of coal towards Ontario has not improved and will not improve to any marked extent until navigation closes on the upper lakes. Every possible ounce is being shipped in that direction at present and, meanwhile we are endeavoring to equitably distribute throughout Ontario the limited supplies that are coming in this direction. Many towns in Ontario are still entirely without coal and where these places have a fuel controller appointed he was endeavoring to distribute coal from more fortunate municipalities. Many places have failed to appoint controllers and they are the worst sufferers. Preliminary orders have now been issued to the delinquents to appoint controllers within the next few days or go fuelless. The fuel administrator is convinced that Ontario will have to saw wood this winter as never before since the pioneer days. In a great many cases the farmer has been bringing wood to town and returning with a supply of coal. But the local fuel controllers are awakening to this situation and are aware of where they know a supply of wood exists on a man's farm suitable for the stove they are rigidly restricting his coal purchases."

BARBERS' UNION OPPOSES HALF-DOLLAR HAIRCUT

The Journeymen Barbers' Union, at a meeting held on Sunday afternoon, placed themselves on record as being in favor of 40 cent hair cuts and as being opposed to 50 cent hair cuts on principle. At the same time it certain master barbers desired a charge of 50 cents a hair cut they were merely exercising their privileges. "We are now at least 70 per cent organized in the downtown district," said Leon Werthel, general organizer for the union. "We have 28, if not more, of the 60 master barbers of this section of the city, and in the Ward we are 100 per cent organized. Of course, several firms are dead against the principle of trades unionism, but they form a minority of the employers. There are many firms which would favor us, indeed do favor us, but who desire us to supply them with full staffs, which unfortunately we can't do. We are organizing an educational campaign on behalf of trades unionism in respect to ourselves. Our minimum wage is $20 a week with half profits on all weekly turnovers exceeding $20 a week. We are becoming stronger every few weeks."

VETERANS ASK HELP FOR SOLDIERS' FAMILIES

J. V. Conroy, secretary of the reorganization committee of the Toronto G.W.V.A., stated on Sunday afternoon that the association was besieged with calls from families suffering from the ravages of Spanish influenza, and that the auxiliaries were doing their utmost to cope with the situation. "I should like to appeal to the public to help our association to deal with the many cases of influenza among the families of soldiers overseas," said the secretary. "The women of the various auxiliaries are doing noble work in this connection, but we need all the help we can get to stem the tide. I would appreciate any offers for service to this end. Any of those who can help will be conferring a favor by calling upon Miss Dyke at room 308 at the city hall."

PLAYGROUND DIRECTOR ENLISTS FOR SIBERIA

F. J. Denning, 157 Lisgar street, a well-known athlete and supervisor of city playgrounds, has enlisted for Siberia. Denning won several medals and trophies playing on championship basketball teams. He was supervisor at Earlscourt, Elizabeth Street, McCormick, Brook and Oiler playgrounds, at each of which he was popular and worked strenuously for the boys. He was also well-known in musical circles and was a member of the National Male Quartet.

BOY SCOUTS HOLD FIELD DAY.

On Monday, Thanksgiving Day, Oct. 14, the Boy Scouts of Toronto will carry out a big dispatch-carrying game between Lambton and Weston. One thousand boys will take part, all working in small parties. Plans and details have been carefully drawn up, and a most interesting and instructive game in outdoor life will be carried out. A good sport to view the game will be on the Scarleat road, opposite the Lambton Golf Club. Both forces are out to win, and a keen competition is anticipated.

PRESENTED WITH WATER SET.

At the recent open meeting of the White Heather Camp of the Daughters of Scotland, a fine program was given, and Mrs. McRobert was presented with a handsome cut-glass water set, as an appreciation of her services to the camp.

Here he can enter classes, composed of boys, for physical culture, swim and be taught swimming, join groups for recreation and moral guidance, be made strong in manhood for the new Canada which will need so greatly young men of proved and noble character.

His play instinct and his surplus energy are not suppressed, but directed. The way of training is not negative with Don't, but positive with Do as the key.

The plans adopted are suited to the boy's age and tastes, and are not the same as would do for his father. We know how. Five Dollars a year paid for a membership in the Y.M.C.A. is a trifling sum to invest in his present and future welfare.

The Toronto Y.M.C.A.'s are the biggest boys' club in the world and your boy ought to join. The boys of no city have a better chance. Don't let your boy miss it. Have him

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES ASK NEW SCHEDULE

Local 433 of the International Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Freight Handlers and Station Employees, at a meeting held at the Labor Temple on Sunday afternoon, decided to appoint representatives to approach the head officials of the three railways—the C.P.R., C.N.R. and G.T.R.—to request the enforcement of several of the clauses of the McCaod agreement, which it is alleged the companies are not now carrying out. One of these calls for an eight-hour schedule.

"Crashing Thru to Berlin," the film production seen at Massey Hall on Saturday night, is a historic survey of the great war, with a decidedly American finish. One has taken, through every phase of the great operations of the war, from the murder and burial of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his consort at Sarajevo to the potential destruction of militaristic influence in the Germanic empires by way of great American battles and bombing air fleets.

The siege of Liege, the destruction of Louvain, the portrait of Kaiser Wilhelm in the self-styled descendant of Alexander the Great, the capture of Britain's "contemptible army," the destruction of St. Paul's Cathedral and Westminster Abbey by zeppelins in 1918, neither of which has been touched in any German raid, the Mesopotamian expedition with its tableau, the capture of Jerusalem, the battle of Verdun, the sinking of the Lusitania with its ultimate result, the entry of the United States into the war and the final peace of victory, were vividly pictured on the screen. All the branches of the services were well represented, from the huge Krupp guns trained upon the enemy's revolving defenses of Liege to the far greater guns, juggernaut cars and other devices of modern warfare. Submarine destroyers, the bombing and the use of all the allied nations, and the finest of the infantry and cavalry units were well portrayed features.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS SMILES AT THE ALLEN

Full of pep and ginger, Douglas Fairbanks fairly hurries himself and his joyous personality into the picture. He comes up smiling, in which he is appearing at the Allen Theatre this week.

In the role of Jerry Martin, Mr. Fairbanks plays the part of a bank-teller suffering from the effects of his caged-in life, who throws up his job to join a band of robbers. He gets mixed up with some Wall Street financiers, and extricates himself from an embarrassing position, at one of the magistrates' court. The picture is the laughable basis for the very best picture in which Fairbanks has yet appeared. All thru the picture, "Doug" is given many opportunities to display his athletic skill, and to show some of the stunts which have made him famous.

"The Kiss Burglar."

"The Kiss Burglar," the musical offering selected to hold the boards at the Royal Alexandra, commencing this afternoon with a special matinee, besides the usual matinee Wednesday and Saturday, is said to contain more tuneful tunes and more catchy music than any Broadway success produced in years. The book and lyrics were written by the great Donaghue, who has a score of successes to his credit; while the music is from the pen of Raymond Hubbell, one of America's most popular writers, whose works have won celebrity.

"Furs and Frills."

Opening its new season at the new Princess Theatre, with a special Thanksgiving Day matinee this afternoon, Richard Carle will be seen in his revised and greatly improved musical comedy success, "Furs and Frills," with Richard Carle as the comedian-star. That Carle's musical comedy is invariably a success proves conclusively Mr. Carle's power as a comedian, and it may be said truthfully that his work in this present vehicle is proving the most entertaining of his entire career.

"Bringing Up Father at Home."

The latest edition of the musical farce comedy founded upon the newspaper drawings of George McManus is entitled "Bringing Up Father at Home," and will be the offering at the Grand Opera House Thanksgiving week, opening with a special holiday matinee today. This production is said to be the best of the "Fathers" series, and in the company are John E. Cain, who creates the role of "Jiggs" on the stage; Miss Dava Kael, the original "Maggie"; and Blanche Newcombe, daughter of Bobby Newcombe, in his day regarded as the king of jesters and said to be inherited by his daughter. The principals are supported by an able company of funmakers and a chorus that can sing and dance. Besides the holiday matinee today, the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

Shea's Theatre.

Commencing with a matinee this afternoon, the management of Shea's Theatre presents as the headline attraction Joseph E. Howard, the favorite song writer, assisted by Ethelyn Clark and a company of twenty. Bert Baker, the company will feature a special feature on the bill in the laugh-provoking playlet, "Prevarication." Leo Heers presents songs, stories and an attractive piano. Leon and David in the novelty playlet, "Behind the Front." John R. Gordon and company in the amusing sketch, "Meatless Days"; Armstrong and James, black-faced comedians; Helena Jackley, "The Gymnastic Girl," and the British Gazette, showing views of the western front, are other features of the bill.

Loew's Theatre.

Clara Kimball Young in "The Claw," a remarkable story of the South African veldt, heads this week's offerings at Loew's Theatre and Winter Garden. "Miss America," featuring Jean Waters and George Phelps and a beauty chorus, will feature the vaudeville numbers, which include Williams and Mitchell in a pretty musical comedy playlet, "June Time"; Wm. Siste, "The Italian Statesman," who discusses topics of the moment; Knight and Sawtelle, in originalities and comicities; Vera de Bassini, "The Italian Nightingale," offering operatic and popular selections; Lockhart and Leade, acrobatic funsters. "Fatty" Arbuckle in "The Cook," Loew's War Theatre will feature the picture and cartoons will be shown at every performance.

Shea's Hippodrome.

Fanny Brice, the Japanese Nightingale, will be the feature picture attraction at Shea's Hippodrome this week, while Dolan and Lenhart will head the vaudeville bill. In their funny skit entitled "Plain Mary," Hadji Sambo and Co. have a European novelty which is known as "The Haunted House." The Nippon Duo are a couple of Japanese in a clever
