The Boer Dutch for hat sounds like 'hicot'"-and perhaps they call the hatters in the Transvaal 'hooters." The Boer's disregard for style would make him an easy ct stomer with some of the would-be fashiorable 'hooters' in Toronto, because he would be more likely to prefer the hats of lest season's style which a 'hooter' can ofier for $2.50 and less—than to pay $3 for the four-dollar qualities in the very newest styles at Dineens'. The Toronto individual with a Boer's indifference to correct style would never think of buying his hat at Dineens'. A 'hoot' from a 'hooter' would really meet all his requirements.

Montreal, Oct. 23,-(Special.)-There can e no doubt that Hon. Mr. Tarte's position able, and that Mr. Bourassa's resignation was prompted by the Minister of Public Works, who posted off to Quebec to try to induce other members to follow suit. It has been stated that Mr. Malouin, M.P., might resign, but this is doubted. In fact, it looks as if the Minister of Public Works would get a cool reception in his little game to stir up trouble in this Province. It is believed that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had pro-mised Mr. Bourassa Cabinet rank, and, being unable to carry out this promise, the grandson of Papineau kicked like a steer and finally resigned.
