PETER RIJNHART'S FEARFUL FATE

Meets Death at the Hands of Fierce Mountain Tribes.

His Wife, Formerly Dr. Susannah Carson, of This City, Stunned and Shot At—She Was Chased and Hunted for Two Months—Her Son Dies From Exhaustion.

The following dispatch has been received from Seattle, Washington:

"Advice from the Orient say that a Canadian woman, who joined the China inland mission as the wife of Mr. Rhinehart, a Belgian missionary, has just reached Tachulu, with a terrible story of cruelty and suffering among the fierce mountain tribes of Thibet. Her husband was brutally murdered after her son had died from exhaustion. She was chased like a hunted deer for two months through the mountains on the border of China and Thibet. She was shot at time and again, and pelted with boulders from cliffs overhead, but finally succeeded in reaching a mission. She and her husband were attacked while attempting to cross to Thibet. It is thought that the unfortunate lady referred to in the above is Mrs. Peter Rijnhart, formerly Miss (Dr.) Susannah Carson, of Newbury, who practiced medicine in this city for a number of years. Her office was situated at the corner of Wellington street and Queen's avenue. She was at that time a member and prominent worker in the Dundas Center Church, and was also connected with the literary and mission circles of that body. Mr. Rijnhart is also well known here, where he had lectured on missionary matters. Before his departure for Thibet five or six years ago, he was married to Dr. Carson at Newbury, and since they have been in the far east their deaths have been more than once reported.

Mrs. Rijnhart's many friends in this city and vicinity will be pained to learn of the tragic death of her husband, a zealous and stout-hearted missionary, and of the terrible sufferings that she encountered before reaching a place of safety.

Mrs. Carson, sister of Mrs. Rijnhart, is at present practicing the medical profession in Newbury.

FAGGED OUT—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—a box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills. 60c

BANNERMAN IS THE LEADER

Chosen by Liberal Members of the Reform Club.

Death of Prince Alfred, Only Son of the Duke of Edinburgh.

Grp Takes a Good Hold in Berlin—Oyone in Madagascar—Tragedy in a Sunday School.

London, Feb. 7.—At a meeting of the Liberal members of parliament at the Reform Club yesterday, Right Hon. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, formerly chief secretary for Ireland and late secretary of state for war, was elected to succeed Sir William Vernon Harcourt as leader of the Liberal party.

The Right Hon. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, member of parliament in the Liberal interest for the Surling district of Scotland since 1885, was born Sept. 7, 1836. He is the youngest son of the late Sir James Campbell, and assumed the additional name of Bannerman under the will of his maternal uncle, the late Sir Henry Bannerman, of Hutton Court, Kent. He was educated at Glasgow University and Trinity College, Cambridge, and was married in 1860 to a daughter of the late Gen. Charles Bruce. The new Liberal leader became financial secretary to the war office in 1870; held that position until 1874; was reappointed in 1880, and held the office until 1882, when he became secretary for the admiralty. In 1884 Campbell-Bannerman became secretary for Ireland, and in 1886 and in 1892-95 he was secretary of state for war. Campbell-Bannerman has always been looked upon as a man who had a future before him, and as a person likely to rise to an emergency. He is young-looking and well-proportioned. Irishmen at once time called him the "Scotch sandbag." As secretary for war he proved himself a capable administrator, and as far back as 1895 his name was mentioned as a likely successor of Sir William Vernon Harcourt.

The usual official banquets and levee of opening parliament were given last evening, with one exception. As the Liberal members of the House of Commons had no official leader until the evening, they did not have a banquet. Lord Salisbury entertained the Conservative peers, and the Earl of Kimberley, Liberal leader in the House of Lords, entertained the Liberal peers. The Conservative members of the House of Commons dined with Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, while the Liberal-Unionists were the guests of the Duke of Devonshire, lord president of the council of ministers. After the banquets, the Duchess of Devonshire gave a reception to the members of both parties.

DEATH OF PRINCE ALFRED.
Meran, Austria, Feb. 7.—Prince Alfred of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha is dead. He had been suffering from chronic cerebral troubles.

Prince Alfred of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha was the son of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha (the Duke of Edinburgh), second son of Queen Victoria. His mother was the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia. The Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha celebrated their silver wedding on Jan. 23, at Gotha. Prince Alfred was born at Buckingham Palace, London, Oct. 15, 1874. He was a captain of Prussian infantry, and unmarried. He was the only son and heir.

GRIP AT BERLIN.
Influenza is rampant in Berlin, and many of the public officials are suffering from the epidemic, including Baron von Bülow, the minister of foreign affairs. The chief state attorney, Mooss, is dead. Prince George of Prussia is recovering. At the last court ball half of the invited guests were unable to attend because they were suffering from influenza.

CYCLONE IN MADAGASCAR.
A severe cyclone visited northern Madagascar on Saturday night, the district of Mojarang, on Betsamoka Bay, suffering severely. The new government buildings there collapsed, and there were other large property losses. No loss of life is reported.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TRAGEDY.
Biddenden, Kent, Feb. 7.—Bertha Peterson, the daughter of the rector of this parish, shot and killed John Wibley, a teacher in the church Sunday School. The shooting took place in the Sunday School room, just after the regular service, during which Miss Peterson played the organ and also took holy communion. It is supposed to have been the result of a quarrel with Wibley, who had been attentive to the girl.

DID WELL IN CHINA.
Mr. Wm. Pritchard Morgan, member of parliament for Merthyr-Tydfil, division of Wales, has arrived home from China. He confirmed the success of his mission in having secured concessions from the Chinese Government which provide for opening up the rich province of Sze Chuan to the trade of the world. The agreements have been formally signed, and Mr. Morgan has been appointed foreign, financial, legal and technical administrator of the province. All the foreign ministers at Peking approved of his mission, except the French minister, who strenuously protested against his objects on the ground that they constitute a monopoly and are an interference with treaty rights. Mr. Morgan and his associates are acting in partnership with an American syndicate and the Chinese authorities. His concession covers all the mines and oil fields in the province of Sze Chuan.

LOSS OF THE LONDONIAN.
London, Feb. 7.—The board of trade, in recording judgment in the inquiry into the loss of the steamer Londonian, which foundered at sea on Nov. 25 last, extolled the management and seamanship of the Londonian's officers, and praise the officers and crew of the British steamer Vendome and the North German Lloyd Maria Vickmer for their efforts in saving the lives of a number of those on board the Londonian. The judgment exonerates the captain of the steamer and finds that her steering gear was damaged by the accidental dropping of a piece of waste into the machinery of the carpenter who was drowned. The board also finds that the steamer was not prematurely abandoned, but the loss of life was due to the fact that 25 men, contrary to orders, embarked in a pinnace, which was immediately swamped.

CABLE NOTES.
Premier M. Dapuy declares that the French Government will resist all amendments to the revision bill, and make its passage a question of confidence.

The French parliamentary committee, in a vote of 9 to 2, rejected the government's bill, providing that all cases of trial revision be brought before the whole court of cassation, instead of before the criminal section of that court.

The Rev. Joseph Armitage Robinson, D.D., professor of divinity at Cambridge University, has been appointed to the stall in Westminster Abbey made vacant by the flight from England of Canon Eytton.

The Paris police have arrested a former lieutenant of French infantry on the charge of carrying on an illicit correspondence with a foreign government, involving military secrets. The man's name is Durand.

An official denial has been received from the government of the Congo at Rojar, on the Nile between Fashoda and Uganda, has been captured by the Derivishes.

forces at three points, Calocan, Santa Mesa and Galingatan, and maintained an intermittent fusillade for some hours. They brought artillery into action at Galingatan at 10:30, but only one gun annoyed the Americans to any appreciable extent, a howitzer on the road beyond Santa Mesa. The Third artillery silenced the Galingatan battery by firing two guns simultaneously, which was followed immediately by volleys from the infantry.

About midnight there was a lull in the firing lasting until 3:45 a.m., when the whole Filipino line reopened fire. The Americans poured a terrific fire into the darkness for 20 minutes, and then there was another lull until daylight, when the Americans generally advanced.

DEWEYE SHIPS THREW SHELLS.
During the night, in response to Rear Admiral Dewey's signals flashed across from Cavite, the United States cruiser Charleston and the gunboat Concord, stationed at Malabon, poured a deadly fire into the Filipino secondary battery in the Filipino trenches at Calocan.

After daylight the United States double-turreted seagoing monitor Monadnock opened fire on Malate, and kept shelling the Filipinos' left flank, while the other vessels shelled the enemy's right flank for several hours.

By 10 o'clock the Americans had apparently completely routed the enemy, and had taken the villages of Palaw-pang, Santa Mesa, Paco, Santana, San Pedro, Macarte, Pandocan and Passai, had destroyed hundreds of native huts and had secured possession of the watermain and reservoir, a distance of over six miles.

The Tennessees joined the firing line at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning and assisted in capturing Santa Mesa.

A NOTABLE INCIDENT.
One of the most notable events of Sunday's work was driving the Filipinos out of their stronghold at Paco by the reserve companies of Californians commanded by Col. Duboce. The main road to the village was lined by native huts full of Filipino sharpshooters. After they had been firing upon General King and his staff, killing a driver, and firing on an ambulance of the Red Cross Society, Col. Duboce ordered the huts to be cleared and burned. The Filipinos concentrated in Paco Church and convent, where they made a determined stand in the upper stories. A platoon of Californians stationed on a neighboring bridge maintained a hot fire on the Filipinos, but was unable to dislodge them. In the face of a terrible fusillade, Col. Duboce and a few volunteers dashed into the church, scattered coal oil inside of it, set fire to the oil and retired. In the meantime, Col. Dyer's battery of the Sixth artillery, upon the church, dropping a dozen shells into the tower and roof. Company L, and part of Company G, of the Californians, charged into the church, but were unable to ascend the single flight of steps leading to the story above.

REBELS SMOKED OUT.
After the incendiaries had retired a company of the Idahos and the Washington guards stationed on either side of the building picked off the Filipinos as they were smoked out. Many of the rebels, however, escaped into the brush in the rear of the church. The Americans captured 53 of the rebels, and during the fighting about the church 20 of the rebels were killed.

Some 2,500 women, children and non-combatants were allowed to enter the American lines after promising to go to the houses of friends and remain there.

DEAD-STREWN FIELDS.
Another intensely exciting incident occurred during the engagement. The Washingtons and Idahos and Companies K and M of the Californians made charges across the rice fields between Paco and Santana in the face of a terrific fusillade. The ground today over which they passed is covered with dead and wounded natives. The former are being buried in groups of five or six, about where they lay, and the latter are being brought to the hospital. It was at this stage of the fighting and at
