Apparition Appears To a New Says General Grant Sent Him Jersey Farmer and Gives Him Warning.

New York, Dec. 16 .- That a whisghost of his dead wife saved him today from death by assassination is the belief of Charles Henry Durand, a farmer living in the hills near Caldwell, N. J. His strange story is being used as a clew by the authorities. Durand says that late at night as he horse stopped in the road and began to tremble. In vain he urged the animal to proceed. It would not budge. Suddenly the air grew oppressive lightning appeared. Then gradually amid the dim flashes a white figure assumed a vague form beside the wagon, ago, that her husband was dead.
