DRUGGIST CRITICIZED

For Selling Chloral Which Caused Bentley's Death.

Blaming J. Jackson, the Wilton-avenue druggist, who sold the man poison Sunday last, Coroner Slinger's jury last night returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of W. B. Bentley.

The evidence showed that two ounces of chloral had been sold to the man. It had not been labeled "poison" and was not signed for by him in the druggist's poison register. The verdict follows:

"We find that William B. Bentley came to his death from an overdose of chloral, a drug, the nature of which he evidently did not understand, because the state of his mind was in an abnormal condition, superinduced by the excessive use of alcohol."

"We further find that had the druggist acted in keeping the law governing his profession this misadventure might not have happened."

The jury asked that the attention of the coroner be called to the fact that, in their opinion, the fees paid to jurors are insufficient.

"Touch but don't Squeeze."

SIXTH WARD ASPIRANTS FOUR SEEK NOMINATION

J. Harvey Hall Speaks Out Against Packed Convention—Dr. R. B. Orr a "Dark Horse."

Sixth Ward Conservative Association at a meeting last night to appoint delegates to the forthcoming convention next Thursday began with a noise something like a row. John Laxton, president of the association, was chairman. A large contingent, he said, was present from the Northwest Conservative Association to see that that body was fairly represented among the delegates. It was for the meeting to decide whether, in the generosity and wisdom of those present, this association should be represented. He himself, was favorable if its representatives bound themselves to abide by the choice of the convention and to support the Whitney government. Incidentally Mr. Laxton announced himself a candidate.

Then Harvey Hall arose. "Are we going to run this election as a Conservative election or is it going to be the game of a municipal election when every Tom, Dick and Harry can run as a Conservative?" he asked the meeting. "Are we going to have four or five Conservative candidates in the field so that we can be beaten? It's time the rank and file of the Conservative party should know where they are at."

"That's the reason this meeting has been called," explained the chairman. "We've been fooled for years." responded Mr. Hall. "We've been made tools for years. It's that way in the municipal elections, and its getting to be the same way in the provincial and Dominion elections."

Col. John Gray suggested that the delegates be nominated and elected by the meeting. His suggestion found no favor.

Mr. Hall did not believe in delegates who usually represented some cliques. He believed that a general meeting of the Conservatives in the riding should be called and the candidates chosen there even if the rules of the Albany Club were broken.

Dr. Forbes Godfrey had come, he said, to get some hints for the West York convention to-day. He spoke in high terms of Hon. Thomas Crawford.

"You have always treated me so well that I would hate to leave you," said Mr. Crawford.

"I am a loyal Conservative," said A. W. Wright, "but if I am elected I would not sink my manhood, do what I believed to be wrong for anything that I believed to be wrong even if the party demanded it."

"I expect to be a candidate," said A. W. Wright. "My name will be before the convention, but whoever gets the nomination will get my loyal and hearty support."

"I am a candidate," said Dr. R. B. Orr. "Do not let petty spilt or jealousies arise in your ranks and take chances of sending a Liberal to represent this riding in the house," was Dr. Orr's warning.

G. R. Geary, who was present, urged the need of harmony and the greatness of the cause for which they were fighting.

RUN DOWN ON STREET.

Wm. Reardon Seriously Injured by a Delivery Team.

William Reardon, an employe at the waterworks, living at 294 Parley-avenue, was yesterday knocked down and injured at the head at Agnes and Chestnut-streets by a franchise team driven by Patrick Magee, 169 Mutual-street, driver for the O'Keefe Brewing Company.

The driver shouted a warning to the young man, who, however, did not move quickly enough to avoid being struck.

Joseph Gurofsky, who saw the accident, telephoned the police. The man was removed to St. Michael's Hospital, where he will recover. He has a wound on the neck and one ear is badly mangled.

"As my presence in the department as deputy head might in some quarters be considered prejudicial to the fullest enquiry, I beg to renew for the third time my application for six months' leave of absence, preparatory to superannuation, and which you have so loyally hitherto refused to entertain under similar circumstances."

"I court the most rigid examination of all the department's transactions, so far as I am concerned, and by placing myself on your hands I hope to assist you in that regard."

Mr. Fielding returned to-day from New York, and he took the first opportunity to deny that his visit had anything to do with the question of the change of the route of the transcontinental railway. The report from New York was entirely without foundation. He went there on personal affairs, and had no negotiation with any financiers with respect to the bonds of the transcontinental railway. He added that there had been no negotiations with regard to a change of the route and no negotiations of any kind as to the matters referred to in the reports.

Mr. Kent III.

H. A. E. Kent is indisposed at his home, 379 Huron-street. His absence from the board of education meeting on Thursday night and his non-appearance at the registry office yesterday caused some uneasiness among his friends.

Popular Kind of Periodical.

Jack London was talking in San Francisco about the desertion of his crew. Mr. London, as all the world knows, is circling the world in a small boat, and his crew deserted at Honolulu on account of the dullness of the life.

"They were greatly bored," said Mr. London. "They had a book of ennuil all the time. What did they expect? They acted as if they expected a periodical shipwreck, a periodical onslaught of cannibals, a periodical rescue of some fair girl from pirates. They were rather like a man named Samson whom I once knew."

"A book agent called on Samson's wife."

"Do you take periodicals?" he enquired.

"Oh, no," she replied. "I never take any. But my husband, I'm sorry to say, takes a periodical about once every ten days. Are you a temperance worker, sir?"

Telling His Own Story

Work on the new store is assuming proportions where people can see for themselves the extent of our plans and realize in a measure the growth and development of the business. The careful building of foundations, with basements and sub-basements, has been going on for months entirely unobserved and in many directions we are working away, like the coral insects under the sea, getting everything in readiness for the new order of things. And while the builders are doing their part we want to again emphasize which is to sell only the better grade of goods and price their selling to your advantage. That means eliminating anything in any sense inferior and giving you every reason for confidence. In the low prices at which it sells really fine goods this store stands alone.

For several years we've been letting the roots of the business get a good growth. Keeping faith with the public in such a way as to insure its faith in us. With the new building and new facilities will come the fruition of many plans of vital importance to the people's best interests, which are impossible now, through sheer lack of room.
