PORT CREDIT

As was forecast in The World on Tuesday last, Bandmaster William Clancy has decided to sever his connection with Port Credit Citizens' Band and take up residence in Walkerton, where he will undertake the work of reorganizing the local band. Walkerton possessed a very fine band before the war and is anxious to have it back again. Up till a week ago Bandmaster John Slater of the famous 48th Highlanders' Band of Toronto, acted as tutor to the reorganizing of the band, as he had not the time to complete the work of licking them into shape. Mr. Clancy was asked to carry on as his successor, but he is not a popular local musician was in Walkerton's connection with this work and he has now announced that he has decided to leave the city to become the leader of the new organization and that he will shortly leave Port Credit to take up his new abode.

Port Credit is having a visit during the first three days of this week from the Franklin Stock Company of New York, who will appear in a series of modern dramas.

Port Credit Horticultural Society has been honored by the election of one of its members, Miss M. Yates, as the first lady president of the Ontario Horticultural Society, which appointment was made at the annual convention held last week in Toronto.

James Sharpe, one of Port Credit's oldest residents, has sold his house on Park street and is leaving the town to take up farming, having bought a homestead of 100 acres at Manvers, Durham county. Mr. Sharpe was born in Port Credit 51 years ago and has lived in the village all his life. He and Mrs. Sharpe, who has been an energetic worker in Trinity Anglican Church, celebrated their silver wedding in November last.

Provincial Constable W. H. Rutledge, who is proprietor of the livery at Port Credit, has added another splendid animal to his stables in Patsy Oro, which he purchased recently. The mare comes from Kentucky.

There has been a huge demand for tickets for the entertainment to be given on Friday evening by the pupils of Port Credit High School and it is confidently expected that the object of the promoters—the purchase of a piano for the schoolroom—will be attained.

"The Unpardonable Sin—What is It?" was the subject of an absorbingly interesting discourse by Rev. J. G. Rogers in the Methodist Church yesterday morning. In the evening "A man who turned out badly" was the subject of Rev. Mr. Rogers' address. The church was well filled at both services. Special music was furnished by the choir.

Prospect Park Brotherhood
Hear Lecture on Principles

Fundamental principles of brotherhood were outlined in an interesting lecture yesterday by C. R. Conquerood at a meeting of the Prospect Park Methodist Men's Own Brotherhood. There was a good attendance, over which S. Wall presided.

Anniversary services for the Junior Epworth League members were conducted yesterday at Prospect Park Methodist Church, at which there was special music rendered under the direction of Norman Laird.

Dr. Ridout spoke to the league in the morning on "The Fountain Pen." Considerable interest was shown by those present, most of whom were Children. C. R. Conquergood addressed them in the afternoon and Ivan Brock was the speaker of the evening. The celebration of the fifteenth anniversary will be continued tomorrow and Wednesday evenings in the form of a cantata, under direction of Norman Laird.

Cast Toronto Car Line
To Be Extended on General

In connection with the East Gerrard street civic car line, preparations are now well under way for the extension of the line to the eastern city limits. The roadway on each side has been paved and a good road bed of a permanent character is nearing completion.
