DEAD AND UNDELIVERED LETTERS, ETC.

Letters or other articles, which from any cause remain undelivered in any Post Office, or which, having been posted, cannot, under the Regulations of the Department, be forwarded to destination, are sent to the Dead Letter Office at Ottawa, there to be opened and returned to the writers, on payment of any postage which may be due thereon, together with three cents additional on each letter, to defray the cost of opening and returning.

If a dead letter cannot be delivered to the person to whom it is addressed at the Post Office to which it is sent by the Dead Letter Office, it must be promptly returned to the Dead Letter Office, and must not be sent elsewhere.

The reason for the non-delivery of every letter or other article of mailable matter must be stamped or written on the address side thereof before sending it to the Dead Letter Office. Each letter or other article of mailable matter should also be stamped with the dated stamp of the Post Office from which it is sent to the Dead Letter Office.
