

REPORT OF MANAGERS.

The Financial Statement which the Managers have now to lay before the Congregation, for the year 1872, shows not only that the prosperity of the previous year has been maintained, but that a further increase has taken place in the two chief sources of revenue, as will be seen from the following comparison :

| | 1872. | 1871. |
|--|-----------|-----------|
| Amount received from Pew Rents, | $1748 05 | 1662 24 |
| Increase for 1872, - - - | $85 81. | |
| Amount received from Sabbath Collections, - - - | $1649 | $1592 48 |
| Increase for 1872, - - - | $56 52 | |
| The average Sabbath day Collection throughout the year was $31 37 as against $30 32 in 1871. | | |
| The total receipts amount to - - - | | $4398 16 |
| Balance from last year - - - | | 19 07 |
| Total - - - | | $4417 23 |
| Expenditure per Treasurer's Statement, - - | | 4355 93 |
| Balance on hand - - - | | $61 30 |

In the above is included the sum of $748 58 borrowed from the manse fund, to pay balance of mortgage on the Church, $248 48 of which, and interest, has since been refunded out of the revenue. The debt remaining on the Church is $500, and on the King Street property $2146.

The large sum of $570 70 appears in the Treasurer's books as arrears of Pew Rent. Those who cannot conveniently get to the Church on the evenings appointed for these payments, are reminded that the amount may be enclosed in an envelope addressed to the Treasurer, and put into the plate on Sabbaths.

The Envelope System of contributing weekly towards the support of ordinances, has now been in operation for two years, with the most successful results. There are, however, a considerable number of the congregation who have not yet adopted this systematic plan, chiefly those
