

HOSPITAL NURSES TAUGHT TO BOX

VAST DRY DOCK BUILT AT PANAMA CANAL

Washington, Oct. 24—Panama Canal authorities have just completed and opened to public use a vast dry dock at Balboa, on the Pacific end of the waterway, which is expected to be of the greatest value as a naval asset. The need of the navy for large docks, already very pronounced, promises to become even greater with the completion of the monster superdreadnoughts and the extremely long battle cruisers which have just been planned and are about to be constructed.

The new dry dock, known as No. 1, is 1,000 feet long, 110 feet wide with a depth of thirty-five feet of water over the blocks at mean tide. Consequently it can accommodate the largest naval vessel in the world now built or projected.

MESSRS. RUSSELL AND FISHER DENY REFUSING PLACES TO SOLDIERS

Both members of the city council to whom the European War Veterans made special reference in a letter addressed to Mayor Hayes and the council, published in The Telegraph, say that the charges made are both unjust and unfounded. Both Commissioner Russell and Commissioner Fisher said that insofar as it has been in their power they have favored returned soldiers in awarding positions they felt the returned men could fill. The association claimed that war veterans had not been given preference where there were vacancies on the city's payroll.

Commissioner Fisher said that at the time of the formation of the association he asked the secretary for a list of men who were at liberty and for their qualifications, but no list had ever been furnished him. He was unaware that any body of men were looking for work.

Most of the positions vacant, the commissioner said, were of the kind that he felt a returned soldier would not care to fill. At present, he said, the department needed able-bodied laborers, and would be glad to use returned soldiers in that capacity if they cared to work under such conditions.

Refreshing Tea

In any season—Summer or Winter—there is nothing more enjoyable than a delicious cup of tea. The flavor must be "just right," though, and that's where KING COLE TEA excels.

C. C. Band Fair Prize Winners

C. W. Kyffin Gets $500; John Czyny $250; James L. Gallagher $150; F. B. Curran $75

C. W. Kyffin, 189 Union street, won the trip around the world or $500, at the City Cornet Band patriotic drawing last night in St. Andrew's rink. A strange coincidence was that the second prize, $250, which went to John Czyny, 41 Brook street, was won by a ticket in the same series, very near it. The ticket winning the first prize was Q-44 and that winning the second prize, Q-83, despite the fact that they were not drawn within an hour of each other.

James L. Gallagher, 27 Dock street, secured the third prize, $150. Frank B. Curran at the I. C. R. depot won the $75 prize, while the $50 prize was won by George Rothwell, 29 St. David street, and F. Barnes, 38 Paddock street, each taking $25. W. H. Gillen, No. 3 Engine House, and James W. Brittain each won a $25 prize. R. S. Bonnell, of the customs house, won $15.

The total paid admissions during the period of the fair aggregated $800. It cannot be said yet what the receipts will be until after the drawing of the second lottery which will take place as soon as the tickets are sold. The prize list is exactly the same as that of last night and the drawing will be carried out in the same manner.

Credit for the success with which the fair has been conducted. Since the outbreak of the war the organization has contributed its efforts willingly and most profitably to the various patriotic purposes, and the public will no doubt commend it for its work.

It is requested that prize winners call at the City Cornet band room, King street east, this evening to receive the awards.
