

BROOKLYN PULLS UP ON CHICAGO

Reduce Lead for Second Place—Yesterday's Games in the Majors.

New York, July 9.—The Yankees failed to improve their opportunity to gain on Washington yesterday while the Senators were prevented from meeting Detroit by rain. Chicago breezed through to an easy 10 to 2 victory behind Thurston's skillful pitching in the first of a double header. In the closing engagement New York got to Lyons and Barnes for 16 hits, registering an 8 to 2 triumph.

In a game halted by rain at the end of the seventh inning Philadelphia shut out Cleveland, 4 to 0.

Three St. Louis pitchers failed to stop New York's vicious attack and the Giants drew first blood in the opener by a score of 11 to 0.

Brooklyn climbed. Brooklyn cut down the four-game lead by which Chicago held second place to three with a 13 to 11 see-saw triumph.

Pittsburg nursed its embroiled winning streak to four games by downing Boston, 8 to 8.

After 26 innings of fast baseball, Cincinnati and Philadelphia were no better off than when they started. The Phillies took the first by a 3 to 1 margin in 10 innings and the Reds reciprocated in the second with a 2 to 1 decision in 16 rounds. All four initial boxmen went the full route.

FAIRVILLE FOLKS HAVE BIG PICNIC

Methodist Sunday School Members Enjoy Day at Grand Bay

One of the most largely attended picnics of the season was held yesterday at Grand Bay when the Fairville Methodist Sunday school held its annual outing in ideal summer weather. A royal celebration of the birthday of Superintendent William McCavour was one of the most enjoyable features of the day, the superintendent being the most surprised man there when a huge birthday cake was produced.

The baseball game was a lively contest and resulted in a tie between the married and the single men. Rev. James M. Rice, pastor of the church, was captain of the former and H. C. Sweet of the latter team. The score was 6-6.

The line-up was: For the married men: Rev. Mr. Rice, Byron Cameron, Fred Linton, W. J. Linton, David Linton, William Bunnell, Fred Fox, Roy Kirkpatrick and Wellington Lester. Single men: H. C. Sweet, Leslie Linton, Frank Vanwart, James Henderson, Robert Scott, Holly Phillips, Burton Scott, Leonard McColgan and Melville Rice.

Rev. Mr. Rice, a leader in football and baseball in his Mount Allison days, led the teams with old-time vigor and skill yesterday. Samuel Linton umpired and Perry Kelly was scorer.

Great praise was given Rev. Mr. Rice and William McCavour for their part in making the picnic such a success. They superintended the various activities, which included field sports, directed by Wellington Lester and William Bunnell; babies on the block, Fred Linton; ball toss, David Linton, and men's and ladies' bean boards, Willard Bunnell and Roy Drew. Miss Selena Ryan and Miss Muriel Kirkpatrick had charge of the tickets and Melville Rice and Frank Fox of the ice cream. The supper was in charge of Mrs. J. Cheeseman, general convener, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Long, Mrs. William McCavour, Mrs. William Golding, Mrs. Wellington Lester, Mrs. C. Bonnell, Mrs. Dane Crosby, Mrs. S. T. Coughle, Mrs. David Linton, Mrs. William Bunnell, Miss A. Smith, of St. Stephen, Mrs. Perry Kelly, Mrs. Fred Foley, Mrs. J. Burton, Mrs. Edward Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Arthur Sweet, Mrs. J. Evans and others. The refreshments were in charge of B. L. Woods; orangeade booth, Donald Rice, Burton Scott and Arthur Linton, and candy, Misses Florence Kelly, Eva and Nettie Taylor and Vivian McColgan.

The children of the primary department were each given a prize for running after supper and first and second prizes were given for each of the other 15 classes in the Sunday school. G. Hatchett gave several prizes, two each for the girls of 10, 14 and 15 and for the boys of the same age. Violet Graham won a marble clock and Evelyn Sergeant, a book, Donald Rice a fountain pen and Albert Clarke, a book. Mrs. Thomas Tolson and Miss Hazel Linton were prize winners for the ladies' bean board and George W. Hatchett won the prize for the gent's bean board game.

Approves Railway Line in Province

Ottawa, July 8.—The Senate amendments to the Canadian National branch line bill regarding the line from Kingsclear to the St. Croix River were accepted by the House of Commons today. Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways, said that he understood that the amendments accepted the principle that the Canadian National would be free to run its trains under its own crews to the gateway into the United States. He was therefore willing to adopt the amendments.

NEWS NOTES OF BAPTIST INTEREST

The following items are from the Maritime Baptist—

Rev. Edward A. McPhee, formerly pastor of several of our maritime province churches, now serving as assistant pastor of the Ruggles street church, Boston.

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph E. Gullison and family have arrived in the homeland from India after a full term of missionary service at Bimlipatam. The party spent some time in England and Scotland en route. They will be warmly welcomed to the homeland by the members of our churches. We hope, however, that they may be allowed to rest, while at home, as much as possible. India has the first claim upon our Indian missionaries. They will serve India best if allowed that rest at home so necessary to regain strength for the work.

Rev. Milford R. Fosbury, for the last four years pastor of the First Baptist Church, New Haven, Conn., has accepted call to the pastorate of the East Baptist Church, Lynn, Mass., and will commence service there September 1.

MAGNATE STARTED SEASON WITH $6.30

Dallas, July 9.—It doesn't take much financial shrewdness to make both ends meet in the rich big leagues.

In this respect the strong Texas League is no exception. Beaumont and Galveston, for instance, can hardly hope to compete with cities the size of Dallas or Fort Worth.

Victor Taylor to the story of Bob Tarleton, veteran graduate of the diamond, now business manager of Beaumont.

At the start of the season the Beaumont club had a bank balance of exactly $6.80, with notes amounting to $19,000 demanding immediate attention.

Tarleton scratched his noble bean. "I'll have to go to the national baseball meeting and peddle off my players," the old-timer resolved. But there wasn't money enough in the iron box to pay his fare to Chicago.

Happy thought!

The local high school owed him $150 for use of the park for football games. Eventually Tarleton hopped up at the meeting. He made a deal with the Chicago Cubs and got $5,000 in cash and three ball players for his star shortstop, Turpin. The Cubs were unable to deliver one of the other players and later forked up $4,000 instead. Another deal with the White Sox, involving his second baseman, Black, yielded more thousands.

Well, to cut the story short, Tarleton came back with enough money to meet all current debts and had some left over for operating expenses. And more interesting still, is the fact that he strengthened his club.

HAROLD BROWN IS WINNER OF PRIZE

"Game of Observation" Carried on by Imperial Proved of Interest.

Harold Brown, 828 Union street, is apparently the most observant boy to participate in Imperial Theatre's "game of observation" used in connection with the Rossley boys' show advertising campaign. He will receive five dollars for holiday pocket money. Only four girls got within hailing distance of success but not one really succeeded. So the theatre is going to give these girls a number of tickets each.

Thousands of printed cards were distributed amongst school children and in the homes. In writing the printed matter for the card a line appeared, containing the words and dating: "Starting June 20 and ending June 28th." In this partial sentence the mistake was planted. But very few boys and girls thought so, judging from the flood of other answers received.

The card simply asked what was wrong with the card, something was not quite right; write down your answer and send it in. Hundreds of children tried but six boys and four girls were the only ones to hit upon the incorrectly written dating. Five of the boys and all of the girls said there should be a "th" after June 20—(same as it was in the 28th)—whilst Harold Brown played safe by merely calling attention to the fact that June 20 was printed, without the "th" while June 28 had the "th" affixed.

So in fairness to the Union street boy the cash award must be given him, although he really did not tell wherein the mistake laid. It was a queer contest and goes to show what would happen most boys and girls if they came under the blue pencil of a city editor to whom the Imperial went for confirmation of its decision.

The proper way to use a dating is to write either plain June 20 or the 28th of June, though the latter is not used much and has practically grown obsolete, according to newspaper practice. But not one of the competitors in the Imperial's little "Game of Observation" pointed to this. On the other hand they called attention to the absence of the "th" on June 20, allowing the wrongly written "June 28th" to go free as correct.

Some may desire to question this ruling but newspaper editors will support it. It would be all right to say Henry the Eighth because there were seven Henrys before him, but can you say the same thing of the month of June? More correct, the newspaper men say, to write it plain June 8.

So it is hoped the Imperial's game of observation will prove helpful to more than the unsuccessful children. It certainly points out an enormously general and popular error amongst all classes of people. The children to call at the theatre are Harold Brown, Eileen Chase, Constance Sheraton, Cella Jacobson, Madeline Evans.
