a Suit

Surprising what $30 will do here in the way of a suit for men. More will do more, naturally, but $30 here means more than in other stores in higher rent districts.

This "out of the high rent district" isn't a mere play on words, but it effects an actual saving in money, as men all over town will testify.

This will be done on application of those people whose names did not appear. EAGER FOR SPACE AT THE EXHIBITION, SAYS SECRETARY

Mr. Porter Sees Good Fall Fair Next Month

Indications for the Best Yet—Some New Features, Including a Cabaret—Entries of Exhibits from All Over Country.

According to the present indications, the St. John exhibition this year—the first for six seasons—will be the most successful fair in the history of the city, H. A. Porter, secretary of the exhibition association, told a Times reporter this morning.

In spite of the fact that more space is available for exhibits than in any show in the past, all available has been snapped up and a lengthy waiting list grows longer from day to day.

The removal of the dining room from the main building to the western end of the building recently taken over from the militia, has provided 500 feet of additional space, which was taken up without solicitation.

The fair will have several new features. The art exhibit will be placed this year in the bay on the second floor of the main building immediately over the entrance. Here in addition to the usual loan exhibit will be shown examples of art photography and commercial art, new lines in this connection.

The main floor of the new armory will be taken up with a dog show, and for this reason a fence of the exhibition will be moved to the street line of Sheffield street to take in the main entrance to the armory.

Another new departure at this season's fair will be a full blown cabaret. For this purpose the top floor of the agricultural hall, which was formerly made up of two amusement halls, has been taken over. The floor in the larger hall is being prepared for dancing, while the smaller one will be furnished with tables for the serving of refreshments.

Although it is rather early to judge the number of entries that will be made in the various classes, Mr. Porter said that the indications are that they will be well filled. Entries are now pouring in from all over the country; cattle classes are being filled rapidly; the sheep entry is already heavy, but so far the poultry list is not very numerous.

A big poultry list is anticipated. This show will be staged as usual in the space under the grandstand.

The contract for the amusements has already been signed with the Dominion Attractions, Ltd., who will provide two shows daily, one each in the afternoon and evening, in front of the grandstand.

The night fireworks this year will feature some vivid scenes from the great war. These displays will be given nightly.

The work of repairs and painting at the buildings is going on satisfactorily and already is showing a great improvement. The end of the military building near the race track is being removed, and the members of the exhibition association and those interested in the show are all of the opinion that the 1920 fair will set a new record from all standpoints.

LIQUOR CHARGE

In the police court today William Bell was charged with being drunk in Union street and with keeping liquor for sale in his licensed beer shop at the corner of Union Alley and Union street. He pleaded guilty to the first charge and not guilty to the other. Sergeant McAleese testified that he arrested Bell in Union street last night about 10.30. In consequence of information given by one Fine, he and Detective Biddiscombe went to the shop of the accused and made a search. He said they found two whisky cases containing some bottles partly filled with whiskey and some empty. Another ordinary beer bottle was found with a cork screw in it. Some glasses were also found and were said to have a strong smell of whiskey in them. A quantity of cork was found as well as broken glass strewn over the floor.

Detective Biddiscombe corroborated the evidence of Sergeant McAleese as to the search.

Policeman McNeil testified that he had arrested Pine, who told him that he had been served over the counter with whiskey in Bell's shop. He also testified that he had seen another man, who was also arrested last night on drunkenness charge, in Bell's place of business earlier in the evening. Bell was remanded.

Five prisoners were remanded on drunkenness charge.

DEATH OF JAMES GORIE

Many friends in Lunenburg learned with regret of the death of James Gorie at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Tippet, 50 Sand Cove Road, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Gorie was ninety years of age and a native of Orkney Islands, Scotland. Coming to Lunenburg fifty-nine years ago he was for a long period employed as farmer with Sheffield Thompson. He was a remarkably well preserved man for his years and had been sick only a few days. Of a very kindly disposition, he was well and favorably known and will be missed by many friends. Mr. Gorie leaves two daughters, Mrs. Oscar Tippet of Sand Cove Road, with whom he made his home in the later years, and Mrs. Alex Aigle of Nova Scotia; also two sons, William of Fairville and James of St. John. Eighteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren also survive. The funeral will be held tomorrow at half past two o'clock from the home of Mrs. Tippet.

Out-of-Doors Yet Safe from Harm!

Nature works the same with the child as with the plant.

Transplant a flower from your garden and bring it indoors, away from the air and sunshine and watch it lose its strength and beauty.

A baby, like a plant, needs all the fresh air it can get during the summer. Don't keep the little one indoors these nice days when for a few dollars you can purchase a Kiddie Koop in which you can leave the baby on the porch or in the yard without fear of it toddling into danger.

Think of the time you, mother, will save in a day if you can attend to your household duties without interruption and leave the child in the fresh sunshine with its toys.

We have a complete line of Children's Furniture which will minimize the time you must spend with the baby, and we shall be glad to demonstrate any of these articles at any time.
