RUB SPRAINS, PAINS AND SWELLING AWAY

Don't Suffer! It's so needless—instant relief follows a rubbing with "St. Jacob's Liniment."

Rub it on a sprained ankle, wrist, shoulder, back or a strain anywhere, that's when you realize the magic in old, honest "St. Jacob's Liniment" because the moment it is applied, out comes the pain, ache, soreness and swelling. It penetrates right into the injured muscles, nerves, ligaments, tendons and bones, and relief comes instantly. It not merely kills pain, but soothes and heals the injury so a quick recovery is effected. Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacob's Liniment" right now at any drug store and stop suffering. Nothing else so thoroughly, it is the only application to rub on a bad sprain, strain, bruise or swelling.

ANSWER BY PERCY MOORE.

To the Sporting Editor of The Times:—Sir, I notice in the columns of your valuable paper of the 29th ult., a challenge issued by Cecil Garnett, claiming to be a soldier athlete, wishing to meet me some time in the near future. As it is against the laws of New Brunswick for me to answer the challenge, I wish to say if he will secure permission from the proper authorities to stage the affair I will be delighted to meet the shadow boxer.

McGraw Saves Schupp.

Gainesville, Fla., April 7.—Ferdie Schupp, southpaw sensation of 1917, has been left in Gainesville with the second team. Schupp is expected to play a leading role for New York before the series with the Sox is concluded. He has not been troubled in the least by the old shoulder lameness that crippled him all of last season. But his arm has not been crowded and is still just a trifle muscle sore. Ferdie is likely to take a crack at the collegians here, but McGraw did not wish to put him in a position where he might force himself in such important games as those with the Red Sox are bound to prove.

Dempsey's Plans.

Jack Dempsey, who will meet Jess Willard for the world heavyweight title on the afternoon of July 4, will wind up his theatrical tour through the west on April 29, closing his show at Kansas City. Jack will then take a rest for three weeks, after which he will start real training for the big battle. Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, has not decided where Jack will get into condition for the contest, but he expects to do a few weeks of it at Long Branch and the remaining weeks close to the battleground.

THE GROWTH OF MONCTON.

(Moncton Transcript.)

L. H. Higgins Friday afternoon purchased from F. C. Jones the G. B. Lutz property, situated at the corner of Main and Lutz streets. This is one of the most desirable and valuable business sites in the city of Moncton and it is understood that Mr. Higgins intends erecting on it a business block similar to the other magnificent buildings he has built on Main street within the last few years. It is possible that Mr. Higgins may not build on the Lutz property this year in view of the fact that he is already preparing to erect a large building, to include stores, offices and perhaps apartments, on the recently acquired Minto Hotel site at the corner of Main and Robinson streets. The purchase of these two valuable corner sites by Mr. Higgins means that Main street will very shortly be ornamented by two up-to-date business blocks that will not only be a credit to the city, but will greatly enhance Moncton's importance as a rapidly growing commercial centre.
