SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

BASEBALL

The Federals.
Chicago, Oct. 26.—Clubs of the Federal League played to 1,600,000 persons last season, according to a statement made by James A. Gilmore, president of the league.

Chance for Meredith.
New York, Oct. 26.—Lawson Robertson, coach of the Irish-American A. C., says that a special 660-yard race has been added to the programme of the I. A. A. C. games, which will be held in Madison Square Garden next month. The event was put on the programme so as to give Ted Meredith, the great middle-distance runner of the University of Pennsylvania, a chance to meet Homer Baker of New York A. C. In a recent race at this distance Baker beat the Pennsylvania flyer, since when Meredith has been anxious for another race.

FOOTBALL

Fredericton Loses Again.
The Fredericton High School football team returned home Saturday evening after a rather disastrous trip to the city, having lost two games and one of their players receiving a fractured shoulder. At Rothsay on Saturday afternoon, the Fredericton boys were trounced 6 to 0 by Rothsay Collegiate School. Brewer's shoulder was broken during the game and he was replaced by Purvis. St. John High now leads the league, having won both games played; Rothsay has a win and a loss and Fredericton two straight losses.

U. N. B. Winners.
U. N. B. football team scored a decisive victory over Dalhousie players at Fredericton on Saturday, beating them 8 to 5 in a fast, rough game. Bob Melrose of St. John scored both tries for U. N. B. John C. Dolan refereed.

NOTES OF THE WAR

Adeline Patti sang at a patriotic concert in Albert Hall, London, on Saturday evening before the king and queen and other members of the royal family. Maxine Elliott, the famous American actress, has given a motor ambulance to the Duchess of Sutherland's Hospital Corps in France and expects to go to the front herself as a red cross nurse. The national relief fund in England, known as the Prince of Wales Fund, is now more than $16,880,000. The London Times fund for sick and wounded now amounts to $2,800,000. The Daily Telegraph raised $200,000 for the Belgians in a few days and the Pall Mall Gazette has raised $125,000 for the Belgians. A fund for wounded and needy London soldiers now amounts to $275,000. Princess Mary's fund for Christmas gifts is now $90,000, besides $5,000 from the Daily News readers for Christmas puddings. Queen Mary's fund for providing work for women has reached $400,000.

INDIANA POLITICS WARMS UP AS BEVERIDGE MAKES FIERCE FIGHT TO "COME BACK" TO SENATE

(By Gibson Gardner.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 26.—Indiana is producing this fall a full line of its well known brand of politics. The output is in no respect below standard.

There are three senatorial candidates in the field—democratic, progressive and republican. There are state, county and local tickets (except governor and lieutenant governor) before the voters. There is a vigorous and expensive campaign being pushed by the Republicans, to rehabilitate their party and make it what it was in the days when McKinley, Hanna and Charles Warren Fairbanks reigned.

There is a vigorous campaign on also by the Progressives under the lead of Albert J. Beveridge, to keep the old reactionary Republicans from "coming back" and to send Beveridge back to the United States senate.

All the animosities of the feud between Beveridge and Fairbanks, with their respective followings, are in evidence. Until very lately the Democrats have been serenely confident that the divided opposition would give them an easy victory and would insure the re-election of United States Senator Benjamin F. Shively. Now they are worried. Shively has been told he must come to the state and make some speeches. At this writing he is heading this way.

The republican candidate for United States senator is Hugh T. Miller, originally a college professor, then in the state legislature and later lieutenant governor under J. Frank Hanley.

Behind him are Jim Watson, who stands for all that is bad in reactionary republican politics, and former Vice-President C. W. Fairbanks, whose political record is not yet forgotten. Both are on the stump for Miller.

The Progressives are attempting a revival of Mark Hanna's "full dinner pail" campaign of 1896. While the rural element, which is 60 per cent of the population, is prosperous, the industrial communities have had a touch of hard times and the republican managers are appealing to this discontent and holding out vague but generous promises that prosperity will return if they are returned to power.

Beveridge is getting the crowds. Since September 14 he has been making an automobile canvass of the state, averaging from three to ten speeches a day.

In favor of Shively the Democrats are using President Wilson's letter of indorsement saying that Shively had helped him in carrying out his policies and asking that he and the whole democratic delegation in the house of representatives be returned. Bryan has been in the state with a few speeches to the same effect.

As to the outcome of the election, predicting is difficult. Beveridge is no doubt the strongest candidate and the best man. He is brilliant and stands for those things in the economic and political development of the nation, which, in the end, must prevail. He is opposed by shrewd opportunists on the one hand, who are not above holding out hopes of ancient graft to those "business men" who are affiliated with special privileges and wish to use the government for their private gain.

President Wilson carried Indiana two years ago with 281,000 votes. Roosevelt got 102,000, and Taft 151,207. I expect to see a marked decrease in the democratic vote. Some of the Wilson Democrats will vote for Beveridge and some of the Roosevelt vote will drop back to republican regularity. Beveridge will poll a larger vote than his opponents anticipate and if Shively wins he will find that his margin of safety was much smaller than he supposed.

THE SACRED CONCERT FOR THE BELGIANS ON SUNDAY GREAT SUCCESS

Excellent Programme by City Cornet Band and Other Local Talent in Imperial Theatre in Aid of Relief Fund—Many Turned Away

Long before the hour of commencement last evening the Imperial Theatre was crowded for the sacred concert conducted under the auspices of the City Cornet Band in aid of the Belgian relief fund. Many failed to secure admission, though even on the stage-seats had been placed for persons anxious to hear the concert. The City Cornet Band has always been most prominent as an organization ever ready to assist the needy and its works of charity are many. This is another of their many kindly and generous acts and as a result of their endeavors, with the assistance of those who contributed to their programme last night, a very substantial sum will be added to the Belgian fund.

The programme given could hardly have been arranged with better taste and it would be practically impossible to have afforded greater pleasure than was given the vast audience. Every number proved popular, and was received with delight by all present. The programme was given in detail by the Times-Star on Saturday.

Among those present were Lieut.-Gov. Wood and party, and His Worship Mayor Fink and party. The mayor made a brief speech eulogizing the efforts of the City Cornet Band for the aid of the oppressed and suffering and complimenting them highly. Mention of the kindness in co-operating in this and similar movements by the Keith Amusement Company through their popular local manager, W. H. Golding, and his very active aid was also made. The band, are deeply thankful to Mr. Golding for his material assistance in making the affair so successful.

The solos by Mrs. L. Murray Curran, Madame Furios-Schmidt and Miss Nellie Colahan were charmingly rendered, while the vocal numbers of M. T. Morris, C. A. Munro and H. Mayes gave pleasure to all. A cornet solo by D. J. Gallagher and a violin solo by Prof. Cassin afforded great delight. The selections given by the band under the capable direction of Prof. Waddington added to their laurels already creditably earned as musicians of outstanding ability and their playing of each number won hearty applause, and they richly deserved the favorable comment accorded.

While every number is deserving of the highest praise special mention might be made of the singing of Madame Furios-Schmidt. In her many previous public appearances in St. John her versatility has added to the enjoyment of her beautiful and well trained voice but it is safe to say that never did she give her hearers more sincere pleasure than in her impressive rendition of "There is a Green Hill Far Away" followed by a French sacred song "Mon coeur a cours a ta voix."

Professor Silas Casson who has been heard only too seldom in solo work since he came to St. John, delighted the big gathering with the technical skill and fine feeling with which he rendered the "Ave Marie" by Schubert and Romance, by Rubenstein.

YOUTH WILL BE SERVED
Don't overlook the lesson in the world's affairs for the baseball championship. It is that reaction must give way to progressivism; not ideas, not the old, are to rule, age must stand aside for youth, the veteran always has an end of his day and must surrender to the recruit. What is true of baseball and war is true of ordinary life. The successful old man hangs on to his old-fashioned ways of doing business to the embarrassment of the general welfare.

It is said of Manager Stallings of the Boston champions that he picked up one or two veterans for brain work, and youth and inexperience that could be developed to the limit of its capacities. What he really did pick up was youth, energy and nerve. He ran this combination, after development, up against veterans. These had rules of combat, the usual way of doing things, the old ideas, the status quo. He won because this is the age when you are old at forty-five and dead at sixty whether they bury you or not.

A member of an athletic club, after swimming the length of a large tank in the basement of the institution, came out puffing and blowing apparently exhausted.

"You don't manage your breathing right," said the swimming instructor. "It ought not to tire you so. As to the upper part of your body, including your arms, you use exactly the same muscles and in very much the same way as swimming as in sawing wood."

"No, I don't," gasped the swimmer. "When it comes to sawing wood, I use the muscles of some other man."

"Papa, what is an escutcheon?" "Why?"

"This story says there was a blot on his escutcheon."

"O, yes! An escutcheon is a light-colored vest. He had probably been carrying a fountain pen."
