

The Tribune

VOL. VII No. 178

ST. JOHN, N. B. WEDNES

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A TON ON COAL PRICE

Consumer Has to Pay it; Dealers and Railways Will Split it Between Them

Toronto, May 1.—Commencing today the consumer in Ontario will be paying the price of anthracite coal to the domestic twenty-five cents a ton. There will be no increase in the cost of the commodity to the dealers. Of the additional twenty-five cents a ton which the consumer will be called upon to pay, ten cents will go to the railways as an increase in their tariff, and fifteen cents will go to the pockets of the dealers as additional profits.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Business of This Morning's Session in the Stone Church

The meeting of the Women's Auxiliary in St. John's (Roman) church school room this morning was again well attended, and proved an interesting and profitable session. The meeting opened with an hour of prayer and devotion, conducted by Bishop Richardson, and the regular business matters were begun at ten thirty o'clock.

LABOR TROUBLE BREAKS OUT IN ENGLAND AGAIN

May Tie up Supply of New Lifeboats—Ship Carpenters Want The Work

London, May 1.—The rush demands for rafts and lifeboats has had a remarkable effect in Liverpool, which has resulted in the stoppage of work at many boat yards. The trouble is due to a long standing dispute between ship carpenters and shore carpenters.

BEEF IS AT RECORD PRICE IN NEW YORK

Not Equalled in 20 Years—Potatoes, Too, are Selling Very High

New York, May 1.—The wholesale and retail price of beef has reached the highest point in twenty years in this city, and dealers are unable to say today whether this record advance is to be continued or not. Prices have been climbing for three weeks and packers say that with corn at eighty-one cents a bushel, the farmers are not feeding cattle.

WATER BOARD MATTERS

Carleton Water Extension—Claims Against the City

The last monthly meeting of the water and sewerage board will be held this evening at eight o'clock. An estimate for the proposed sewerage extension in Adelaide road will be presented, showing the cost to be $10,000. Allison & Thomas' petition for a water main through Carleton Place, W. E., and the engineer recommends that it be granted on the condition of guaranteeing six per cent on the outlay.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Table with columns: Max, Min, Dir, Vel, Pair, Clear, SW, NW, S, E, Fair, Cloudy, Rain, Snow, Fog, Ice, etc.

FOOD AND SHELTER FOR 160,000

Mississippi Floods Costly for Uncle Sam—Pressing Need for Relief

Washington, May 1.—Food and shelter for 160,000 people probably will have to be provided by the war department for another month as a result of the renewed flooding of Mississippi river territory. As rapidly as possible, the estimate are being turned over to local relief committees.

PREPARE BODIES OF UNIDENTIFIED

Thirty Embalmers Worked all Night in Temporary Halifax Morgue—Ismay in New York—Relief Fund in England $500,000

(Canadian Press) Halifax, N. S., May 1.—Thirty embalmers worked all night in the improvised morgue upon the hill, preparing for interment more of the unidentified dead in whom centres the fragile hope that relatives still searching for Titanic victims may find their kin.

OPINION IS DIVIDED

There Has Been Quite a Stir Over it, and it is Believed Resident East Indians Will Strongly Resent Government Action

(Canadian Press) Vancouver, May 1.—Two Hindu women and two children, who have been the subject of much discussion since their arrival here on January 21, are being deported today. When Inspector McGill was examining passengers on the S.S. Montague when she reached here on January 21 last from the Orient, he found two Sikhs, who had previously resided in Canada, and who had brought their wives with them. They were Bhag Singh, secretary of the Gurmukh Mission, and his wife, and Balwant Singh, president of the Sikh temple here.

WIDOW OF KINGS COUNTY CAPTAIN

—L'Evangeline Manager Resigns

Moncton, N. B., May 1.—(Special)—The death of her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Jones, Church street, at three o'clock this morning, Mrs. Snow was the widow of Captain Ambrose Snow, of Kings county, who died at sea some years ago. She had resided in Moncton for twenty-seven years. For the greater part of that time she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Jones, who was a member of the First Baptist church, and was very highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends.

BRITISH BANK'S FINE NEW HOME

Decided to Tear Down Wilcox Building—Plans for New Structure Being Made in England

The Bank of British North America is to erect a fine new building on the corner of Dock street and Market square. Ever since their purchase of the building on that corner there has been considerable speculation regarding the use which would be made of it. The definite announcement was made today that the present building will be removed and a new one of modern construction will be erected on the site. Plans are being prepared in England, and until they are received on this side, the details will not be known.

WESTMORLAND STUDENT MAKES GOOD RECORD

Kingston, Ont., April 29.—G. W. Burton, of Shemogue, N. B., who secured the degree of M. B. at Queen's Medical College, made a record mark in winning the chancellor's scholarship, which is given for the best work in the four years' course. Dr. Burton made 2,800 marks in taking this scholarship. The same scholarship has been won with 2,200 marks by the work of the present winner was remarkable.

SON OF SIR I. SHAUGHNESSY

The wedding of Alfred Shaughnessy, son of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, of the Hon. Judge and Bradford, of Nashville, Tennessee, the country home of the bride's parents, was performed on Monday evening last at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell, of Nashville, Tennessee. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. R. Mitchell, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride, Miss Ellen Meek, was accompanied by her father, Mr. J. R. Mitchell, and her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Herndon, of Mobile, Ala. Mr. Shaughnessy had as his best man G. Gordon Weir, of Montreal, and the ushers were Messrs. John M. Gray, Dr. Daniel Carter Bustin, Guilford Dudley, Robin Cooper, Robert Harris, of North Carolina; Wm. B. Dickie, of Birmingham, Ala.; and Dr. L. S. Burch, of St. Thomas and Lady Shaughnessy, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaughnessy, Mr. and Mrs. Wynndham Beaulieu, and Miss Ed. Shaughnessy attended the wedding.

SENDING TWO HINDU WOMEN OUT OF CAN.

Ottawa Orders Deportation Wives of Two Sikhs in British Columbia

(Canadian Press) Vancouver, May 1.—Two Hindu women and two children, who have been the subject of much discussion since their arrival here on January 21, are being deported today.

EMPLOYEES AND P. E. ARE OUT

Want Same Pay as in Similar Positions on

St. John's, N. B., May 1.—The employees of the St. John's and Halifax Railway with the exception of the men in similar positions on the Intercolonial Railway. The management of the road, they say, did not offer to go by the rate, but allowed the time to go by. They are only thinking that nothing would come of it.

IS DRY IN FAIRVILLE AND MILFORD TODAY

Saloons Out of Business Under The Local Option Law

There was no liquor passed over the bars in Fairville or Milford this morning, and the saloons are for the past, for the first time since the passing of the local option law. Six bars which up to yesterday have been doing business transacted their last dealings last night and were under lock and key today, through the passing of the local option law.

ROBESY SCHOOL FINANCE

Credit Balance — Increase

The board of education of the Chatham England Synod met this morning at the Bishop of Fredericton's residence. Encouraging reports were received concerning the work in Robesey school and for the first time a statement was made showing the finances to have a balance on the credit side, which was received with satisfaction by the board members. Various details concerning the college were proved heating appliances. Doctor Hilliard was given much praise for his supervision of the college, and an increase of $200 a year was voted in his salary.

STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION

Fred R. Taylor arrived in the city today returning from Ottawa. He visited the railway in connection with the agreement between the St. John Railway Company and the department of railways regarding the proposed crossing of the I. C. R. tracks at Haymarket Square from the extension of the street railway lines out the Red Head Road. Mr. Taylor said this morning that he could say nothing regarding the success of his mission until he has reported to the directors of the company.

ADDRESS INTERCOLONIAL CLUB IN BOSTON

Possibility — Annexation Not a

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Sir Louis H. Davies, judge of the supreme court of Canada, the principal guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Intercolonial Club last night, declared himself in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States. He said annexation of Canada to the United States was absolutely impossible.

SIR LOUIS DAVIES FOR RECIPROcity

Addresses Intercolonial Club in Boston — Annexation Not a Possibility

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Sir Louis H. Davies, judge of the supreme court of Canada, the principal guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Intercolonial Club last night, declared himself in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States. He said annexation of Canada to the United States was absolutely impossible.

SPLITTING ON SIDEWALKS

Eight Men Before Montreal Court Fined $3 Each

Montreal, May 1.—The police, acting on instructions from Chief Campbell, are engaged in an effort to compel respect for the by-law against spitting on sidewalks. Eight men, who persisted in disobeying the law after their attention had been called to the fact that they had offended in this manner, were arrested by plain clothes men of the City Hall avenue station, and all pleaded guilty and were fined $3 or 15 days each.

APPEALS

The appeals committee was meeting this evening in City Hall. It was the committee that was expected to hear the appeal of John Keefe, who was fined $3 or 15 days for spitting on sidewalks.

THE THISTLE COMPANY

The members of the Thistle Curling Club met last night at a meeting in their rooms, discussed matters of routine, and re-elected the old board of directors for the ensuing year.

WANT SAME PAY AS IN SIMILAR POSITIONS ON

St. John's, N. B., May 1.—The employees of the St. John's and Halifax Railway with the exception of the men in similar positions on the Intercolonial Railway. The management of the road, they say, did not offer to go by the rate, but allowed the time to go by. They are only thinking that nothing would come of it.

IS DRY IN FAIRVILLE AND MILFORD TODAY

Saloons Out of Business Under The Local Option Law

There was no liquor passed over the bars in Fairville or Milford this morning, and the saloons are for the past, for the first time since the passing of the local option law. Six bars which up to yesterday have been doing business transacted their last dealings last night and were under lock and key today, through the passing of the local option law.

ROBESY SCHOOL FINANCE

Credit Balance — Increase

The board of education of the Chatham England Synod met this morning at the Bishop of Fredericton's residence. Encouraging reports were received concerning the work in Robesey school and for the first time a statement was made showing the finances to have a balance on the credit side, which was received with satisfaction by the board members. Various details concerning the college were proved heating appliances. Doctor Hilliard was given much praise for his supervision of the college, and an increase of $200 a year was voted in his salary.

STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION

Fred R. Taylor arrived in the city today returning from Ottawa. He visited the railway in connection with the agreement between the St. John Railway Company and the department of railways regarding the proposed crossing of the I. C. R. tracks at Haymarket Square from the extension of the street railway lines out the Red Head Road. Mr. Taylor said this morning that he could say nothing regarding the success of his mission until he has reported to the directors of the company.

ADDRESS INTERCOLONIAL CLUB IN BOSTON

Possibility — Annexation Not a Possibility

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Sir Louis H. Davies, judge of the supreme court of Canada, the principal guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Intercolonial Club last night, declared himself in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States. He said annexation of Canada to the United States was absolutely impossible.

SIR LOUIS DAVIES FOR RECIPROcity

Addresses Intercolonial Club in Boston — Annexation Not a Possibility

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Sir Louis H. Davies, judge of the supreme court of Canada, the principal guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Intercolonial Club last night, declared himself in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States. He said annexation of Canada to the United States was absolutely impossible.

SPLITTING ON SIDEWALKS

Eight Men Before Montreal Court Fined $3 Each

Montreal, May 1.—The police, acting on instructions from Chief Campbell, are engaged in an effort to compel respect for the by-law against spitting on sidewalks. Eight men, who persisted in disobeying the law after their attention had been called to the fact that they had offended in this manner, were arrested by plain clothes men of the City Hall avenue station, and all pleaded guilty and were fined $3 or 15 days each.

APPEALS

The appeals committee was meeting this evening in City Hall. It was the committee that was expected to hear the appeal of John Keefe, who was fined $3 or 15 days for spitting on sidewalks.

THE THISTLE COMPANY

The members of the Thistle Curling Club met last night at a meeting in their rooms, discussed matters of routine, and re-elected the old board of directors for the ensuing year.

WANT SAME PAY AS IN SIMILAR POSITIONS ON

St. John's, N. B., May 1.—The employees of the St. John's and Halifax Railway with the exception of the men in similar positions on the Intercolonial Railway. The management of the road, they say, did not offer to go by the rate, but allowed the time to go by. They are only thinking that nothing would come of it.

IS DRY IN FAIRVILLE AND MILFORD TODAY

Saloons Out of Business Under The Local Option Law

There was no liquor passed over the bars in Fairville or Milford this morning, and the saloons are for the past, for the first time since the passing of the local option law. Six bars which up to yesterday have been doing business transacted their last dealings last night and were under lock and key today, through the passing of the local option law.

ROBESY SCHOOL FINANCE

Credit Balance — Increase

The board of education of the Chatham England Synod met this morning at the Bishop of Fredericton's residence. Encouraging reports were received concerning the work in Robesey school and for the first time a statement was made showing the finances to have a balance on the credit side, which was received with satisfaction by the board members. Various details concerning the college were proved heating appliances. Doctor Hilliard was given much praise for his supervision of the college, and an increase of $200 a year was voted in his salary.

STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION

Fred R. Taylor arrived in the city today returning from Ottawa. He visited the railway in connection with the agreement between the St. John Railway Company and the department of railways regarding the proposed crossing of the I. C. R. tracks at Haymarket Square from the extension of the street railway lines out the Red Head Road. Mr. Taylor said this morning that he could say nothing regarding the success of his mission until he has reported to the directors of the company.

ADDRESS INTERCOLONIAL CLUB IN BOSTON

Possibility — Annexation Not a Possibility

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Sir Louis H. Davies, judge of the supreme court of Canada, the principal guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Intercolonial Club last night, declared himself in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States. He said annexation of Canada to the United States was absolutely impossible.

SIR LOUIS DAVIES FOR RECIPROcity

Addresses Intercolonial Club in Boston — Annexation Not a Possibility

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Sir Louis H. Davies, judge of the supreme court of Canada, the principal guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Intercolonial Club last night, declared himself in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States. He said annexation of Canada to the United States was absolutely impossible.

SPLITTING ON SIDEWALKS

Eight Men Before Montreal Court Fined $3 Each

Montreal, May 1.—The police, acting on instructions from Chief Campbell, are engaged in an effort to compel respect for the by-law against spitting on sidewalks. Eight men, who persisted in disobeying the law after their attention had been called to the fact that they had offended in this manner, were arrested by plain clothes men of the City Hall avenue station, and all pleaded guilty and were fined $3 or 15 days each.

APPEALS

The appeals committee was meeting this evening in City Hall. It was the committee that was expected to hear the appeal of John Keefe, who was fined $3 or 15 days for spitting on sidewalks.

THE THISTLE COMPANY

The members of the Thistle Curling Club met last night at a meeting in their rooms, discussed matters of routine, and re-elected the old board of directors for the ensuing year.

WANT SAME PAY AS IN SIMILAR POSITIONS ON

St. John's, N. B., May 1.—The employees of the St. John's and Halifax Railway with the exception of the men in similar positions on the Intercolonial Railway. The management of the road, they say, did not offer to go by the rate, but allowed the time to go by. They are only thinking that nothing would come of it.

IS DRY IN FAIRVILLE AND MILFORD TODAY

Saloons Out of Business Under The Local Option Law

There was no liquor passed over the bars in Fairville or Milford this morning, and the saloons are for the past, for the first time since the passing of the local option law. Six bars which up to yesterday have been doing business transacted their last dealings last night and were under lock and key today, through the passing of the local option law.

ROBESY SCHOOL FINANCE

Credit Balance — Increase

The board of education of the Chatham England Synod met this morning at the Bishop of Fredericton's residence. Encouraging reports were received concerning the work in Robesey school and for the first time a statement was made showing the finances to have a balance on the credit side, which was received with satisfaction by the board members. Various details concerning the college were proved heating appliances. Doctor Hilliard was given much praise for his supervision of the college, and an increase of $200 a year was voted in his salary.

STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION

Fred R. Taylor arrived in the city today returning from Ottawa. He visited the railway in connection with the agreement between the St. John Railway Company and the department of railways regarding the proposed crossing of the I. C. R. tracks at Haymarket Square from the extension of the street railway lines out the Red Head Road. Mr. Taylor said this morning that he could say nothing regarding the success of his mission until he has reported to the directors of the company.

ADDRESS INTERCOLONIAL CLUB IN BOSTON

Possibility — Annexation Not a Possibility

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Sir Louis H. Davies, judge of the supreme court of Canada, the principal guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Intercolonial Club last night, declared himself in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States. He said annexation of Canada to the United States was absolutely impossible.

SIR LOUIS DAVIES FOR RECIPROcity

Addresses Intercolonial Club in Boston — Annexation Not a Possibility

Boston, Mass., May 1.—Sir Louis H. Davies, judge of the supreme court of Canada, the principal guest and speaker at the annual banquet of the Intercolonial Club last night, declared himself in favor of reciprocity between Canada and the United States. He said annexation of Canada to the United States was absolutely impossible.

SPLITTING ON SIDEWALKS

Eight Men Before Montreal Court Fined $3 Each

Montreal, May 1.—The police, acting on instructions from Chief Campbell, are engaged in an effort to compel respect for the by-law against spitting on sidewalks. Eight men, who persisted in disobeying the law after their attention had been called to the fact that they had offended in this manner, were arrested by plain clothes men of the City Hall avenue station, and all pleaded guilty and were fined $3 or 15 days each.

APPEALS

The appeals committee was meeting this evening in City Hall. It was the committee that was expected to hear the appeal of John Keefe, who was fined $3 or 15 days for spitting on sidewalks.

THE THISTLE COMPANY

The members of the Thistle Curling Club met last night at a meeting in their rooms, discussed matters of routine, and re-elected the old board of directors for the ensuing year.