Presbyterian Churches

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (West St., John)

REV. JOHN A. MORISON, P.L.D., D.D., Minister.
Divine worship in this church at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. These services will be of a special Easter character, in which both in sermon and song the stupendous thought of the life after death will be considered. Rev. Dr. Morison will trace the development of the belief in the life beyond, dwelling upon the evidences of this belief among the great races of the world and showing in what manner the Christian concept fits in with and completes the best thought of the world's sages. A cordial invitation is given to all who are interested in this great theme to be present at both of these services. The Sunday School, J. R. Cameron, supt., meets at 2:30 p.m.

The choir of the "Kirk" under the leadership of Thomas Rippey, will render special music, as follows: "At the morning service, Albert J. Holden's anthem: 'Behold, I Tell You a Mystery: We Shall Not All Sleep, But We Shall All be Changed.' At the evening service the Easter cantata, entitled 'Easter Angels.' In the course of this cantata appear a number of very appealing solos supported by a large and well-trained chorus, Gethsemane, Calvary and the Garden of the Resurrection are all portrayed, with melodies well suited to these most solemn scenes and to the resurrection morn dawns, there is an appropriate gathering of climactic power, which finally culminates in the last triumphant proclamation, 'Worthy, Worthy, Worthy is the Lamb.' But these musical settings, which are to be fully appreciated. The ushers will be in attendance at a quarter to seven on Sunday Night. All seats are free.
