

PRIZES.

The following prizes will be awarded at the end of the current school year :

1. HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S MEDAL.—This medal is awarded annually to the boy who ranks first in general proficiency at the leaving examination of the sixth form. It carries with it the rank of "Head Boy" for the year.

2. THE J. HERBERT MASON MEDALS (Gold and Silver).—These medals are awarded annually to the two boys, members of the Upper School, who are considered by the masters and pupils to possess in the highest degree the following characteristics: "Cheerful submission to authority; self-respect and independence of character; readiness to forgive offence; desire to conciliate the differences of others; and, above all, moral courage and unflinching truthfulness." It is through the liberality of Mr. J. Herbert Mason, who donated to the College Board $1,000, that these medals are annually offered for competition.

3. THE HOWLAND PRIZE.—Instituted by the late W. H. Howland, Esq., and continued by Oliver A. Howland, Esq., to the pupil (who must be the son of an Old Boy of the College) who ranks highest in the forms.

4. THE BEARDMORE PRIZES.—Books to the value of $100 are annually presented to the College by George W. Beardmore, Esq.

The subjects for which these prizes are awarded and the conditions of competition will be announced each year on the bulletin boards of the College.

5. THE BROCK PRIZES.—These prizes are given by W. R. Brock, Esq., and are awarded for knowledge of Bible History. The subjects for examination are announced from term to term.

6. HARRIS PRIZE.—The relatives of the late Rev. Joseph H. Harris, D.D., appointed first Principal of the College in 1829, give an annual prize in History, as a mark of their continued interest in the College.

"OLD BOYS'" PRIZES.—The Association of Old Boys of the College offer for competition for the year 1898-9 three book prizes :

1. The best Classical scholar.
2. The best Mathematical scholar.
3. The best English essay.

Additional prizes of books are annually awarded by the Board of Trustees for merit in the different forms. The awards are based on the standing of the pupils throughout the term or at examinations.
