

Be it resolved, That the visit of the Supreme Chancellor affords this Grand Lodge great pleasure; that it desires to express its thankfulness for his improved health, its appreciation of his abilities and past services to Pythianism, and to tender to him, on this the occasion of his first visit, a most cordial and fraternal welcome, and hope his term of office may be characterized by the increased growth and influence of Pythianism throughout the entire Supreme Domain.

The resolution was seconded by Supreme Representative McKellar, and its sentiments conveyed by the Grand Chancellor to the Supreme Chancellor, who responded in a graceful manner, after which a recess was taken and all present had an opportunity of paying their respects to the distinguished visitor.

The Grand Lodge was called to order and the Supreme Chancellor retired under Supreme Honors, carrying with him the heartfelt wishes of all present, for a speedy restoration to good health.

Representative Leigh was admitted and took his seat as a representative of No. 39.

Representative Rattray, of No. 4, from the Committee on Law and Supervision, presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT No. 1, OF COMMITTEE ON LAW AND SUPERVISION.

Your Committee on Law and Supervision, to whom was referred the question of payment of funeral benefits to the late Bro. Gillard, of Rokeby Lodge, No. 9, Wallaceburg, begs to report that it fully concurs in the decision rendered by the Grand Chancellor that the brother was in good standing at the time of his death, and therefore the lodge is liable for and should pay the funeral benefits to the estate of the late brother.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. RATTRAY, of No. 4.

C. L. DUNBAR, of No. 43.

WM. H. ROBINSON, of No. 15.

Representative Soole, of No. 30, from the Committee on State of the Order, presented the following report, which was adopted:
