Tomorrow morning a large delegation of Mystic Shriners will leave by steamer Prince Rupert for a round about trip to Halifax, where on Friday night a large party of sister city candidates will be made to tread their way over the hot sands of the desert, and ride the 3-limbed camel, etc., etc.

H. H. Bissett has leased his salmon boat for the winter, and the F. G. Spencer craft is also out of the water in the care of Mr. Hampton, her builder. One by one the smaller outfitting craft are being placed in winter quarters, but not many large yachts are hauled up yet. Next spring will be a record-breaker for salmon boats, and some pretty slick ones have already been ordered.

William McIntosh, son of D. McIntosh, the florist whose greenhouses and home are on the Marsh Road, yesterday shot the moose which was seen on the road in the early morning. It was one of the largest moose shot in the province this year. Mr. McIntosh says that from his house he saw the big bull trotting along inside the Fernhill fence. After moving along some little distance it cleared the fence and crossed the road and headed towards Rockwood Park. Mr. McIntosh hurried into the house for his rifle. The first shot brought him to the ground, but he at once regained his feet, but a second shot missed. The weight of the moose is about 1,500 pounds, and the antlers measure about forty-eight inches. They are, however, not perfect, the points being broken off, probably through fighting.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated this morning at the residence of the bride's uncle, John Porter, Esq., Stanley street, when George Edward Smith was united in marriage to Ella May Jones, Rev. P. J. Stackhouse, B. D., tied the nuptial knot. The bride looked very beautiful in a travelling suit of navy blue broadcloth, with applique and white silk trimmings, and hat to match. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Little Miss Beatrice Porter acted as maid of honor. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold bracelet. The happy couple left on the C. P. R. for points of interest in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. The groom who is well known in the city is in the employ of Northrup & Co., and is president of the Young People's Society of the Tabernacle Church.

FREE KINDERGARTENS

APPEAL FOR SUPPORT

Circular Letter Sent Out Asks Subscriptions to the Amount of $1500.

The following letter is being issued by the Free Kindergarten committee: St. John, N. B., September, 1906.

"Dear Friend: "Feeling assured that you are interested in the work of the Kindergarten Committee, we take this opportunity of writing you that you may know more fully of the progress of the work so far and what we hope to accomplish in the coming year.

"It is not yet four years since our first Kindergarten was opened almost with fear and trembling. We have now two, and are about to undertake the responsibility of a third, the latter having been started and successfully carried on for one year by the Portland Street Methodist church.

"In this time upwards of 150 children have attended the Kindergartens, some of these are now in the public schools, some have left the city, while others still hope to spend another year in their happy child-garden under the careful supervision of the wise gardener.

"The committee have used every effort to have the rooms clean, neat and pretty, so as to place every refining influence around the child. Thoroughly trained kindergarten teachers have been engaged and no pains spared to have the work carried on in the most effective manner. We are rewarded by receiving many a parent's blessing and by hearing good reports from teachers to whom our children have gone.

"To carry on this work successfully we need $500 for each Kindergarten, or $1,500 a year. It is our purpose to get a subscription list to this amount.

"In private Kindergartens $25 pays for one child. Perhaps you can pay for one or more in the Free Kindergarten? If not we will be glad of any smaller subscription. Will you think it over and during the month of October some lady of the committee will call upon you, hoping to receive your sympathy and support."

On behalf of the Kindergarten committee,

MRS. H. H. PICKETT, Secretary.

M. L. BURDITT, President.

MISS M. TRAYLOR, Treasurer.

23 Sydney street, Treasurer.

WOODSTOCK WILL EXTEND

A CALL TO DR. GATES

But He Will Not Likely Accept—The Two Baptist Churches to Unite.

It was stated a day or two ago that the Woodstock Baptist churches were considering a call to Rev. David Long, of this city. Mr. Long contradicted this report, saying, as he understood such was not the case and he had never been approached in the matter. He told the Star that the Woodstock churches were on the eve of uniting and would consult together about getting a minister.

Since then it has been learned by the Star that several names have been considered. Among these were Prof. W. C. Kierstead and Dr. C. O. Gates, formerly of Gormain street and now of Westmount. At a meeting of the committee of the two Woodstock congregations held last evening it was unanimously decided to extend a call to Dr. Gates. The idea is of course to have but one pastor and the churches desire a man of executive ability under whose guidance the union of the two bodies may be most harmoniously consummated. The Woodstock people, however, are not building too much on Dr. Gates' acceptance, though they strongly desire that he should come to them. It is the intention to hold the morning services at the Albert street church and the evening services at the Main street church.

CHAPMAN FESTIVAL IN

BANGOR NEXT WEEK

A Number of Well Known Singers to Take Part—This Festival to Eclipse All Others.

The tenth Maine music festival under the direction of W. R. Chapman is to be held in Bangor on October 4th, 5th and 6th, and as this is a sort of anniversary effort have been made to provide better programmes than at any previous festivals. Mr. Chapman has made frequent visits to the different choruses, and has them now almost perfectly trained. The first evening concert will be oratorio, including a part of The Messiah; on Friday evening the selections will be chiefly from Italian operas and on Saturday the programme will be a mixed one, though it is anticipated that this last concert will be the best of all. Mr. Chapman is bringing the entire New York Metropolitan orchestra, and among the soloists for the festival are Mme. Schurman-Holm, Mme. Elder-Kelsey, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, of Bangor, Mrs. Drinkwater-Anderson, Miss Rosa Dure, Signors Y. Barile and Campana, Messrs. Gwilym Miles, Edward P. Johnson, Clifford Wiley, MacNichol and Goodwin.

A number of St. John people will attend the festival.

M. A. Harding has received the first consignment of Prince Edward Island oysters in the city.

BLACKS, ONE OF THE SEASON'S PRIME FAVORITES

ASTRACHAN JACKETS

$26 to $50

BLACK is always in active request in its own right as a sombre shade for mourning attire, matronly clothing and so forth, but when Dame Fashion sets her seal of approval upon it for general wearing—such as is the case today—the demand is excessive. The novelty and staple lines we are showing fully canvasses the output of the best mills.

THE Unquestioned Dressiness of a well-made Black Astrachan coat is one of its best features, but even before this desirable quality, comes its all-round usefulness in cold weather.

For ladies who do a deal of walking or driving during the wintery months, they are ideal, combining style, richness and comfort in a garment that will last a lifetime.

The new Astrachan Jackets we are showing are beauties. They were personally selected by our fur buyer, in one of the most reputable fur tailoring establishments in the world, and we have no hesitancy in guaranteeing them.

The skins are highly reliable, the fur a curly, glossy jet black, not at all greyish or unkempt, as is often noticed in inferior Astrachan jackets. In fact they are the best goods of the kind that can be bought.

Styles include tight-fitting backs with box fronts, and bloused fronts as well. Fastened with barrel buttons and loops; lined with best of black satin, and supplied with large enveloping storm collar and revers.

Lengths: 28 to 34 inches
