Peary to the Arctic regions, to-day announced the Arctic regions, to-day announced that the work of equipping the steamer and loading her with coal and stores was practically completed and that she would be ready to sail on July 1 as planned.

It was further announced that Commander Captain Harris' boys went out in 1, 2 3 order, Cregan

M. J. Nugent is applying for a liquor sicense near the Suspension bridge and J. E. Martin for a license on Portland bridge. Both are in wards in which there are at present fewer licenses than the law allows. These applications must be on file for thirty days, when the commissioners will set a date for their consideration. Those now in business who were refused a renewal of license must quit July 31st. It is likely, however, that their analysis of the sail on July 1 as third man went down. Captain Harris' boys went out in 1, 2 3 order, Cregan flying to Small, Conboy and Mills being caught at first.

The purple and white men faced Bent in the second and six of these made the pan. "Cap" Harris and Hargraves crossed the line for the St. John the Baptists in their half of the inning. In the third Britt's lads went out without scoring, while Harris added a run for his team.
