Preaching in the Church of Our Lady | mental law of the sanctity and indismental law of the sanctity and indis-solubility of the marriage tie it is con-demnable because it entails the de-struction" of the social fabric. The family is as a brick in the building, and if the bricks begin to disintegrate and fall asunder the building cannot stand. If divorce disrupts and destroys the family, society, that is built of them, cannot exist. Moreover, the evils that divorce is supposed to correct are only of Victory, Brooklyn, New York, on "Christ the Bond of the Family, -ern heresies is the one that makes the individual and not the family the unit of society. Man by himself is not a complete being. When Adam walked alone in the garden of Paradise God divorce is supposed to correct are only intensified by it. It is flippantly said alone in the garden of Paradise God had pity on him and created for him is helpmate. It was not good for him to be alone, so from his side God took the bone that he built into a woman. that if divorce is not countenanced other crimes against society will fol-low. Statistics conclusively prove that simply because divorce is allowed these There is more truth than poetry in the common expression that calls the wife other crimes against chastity are multiplied, showing that laxity in one point of the law entails laxity in every other "the better half." Man and woman as husband and wife together make the unit. How good it is to cast about the mar-niage contract all the sanctity of a great sacredness, to take it away from the dust and baseness of the bargain counter and envelop it with the sac-redness of the sanctuary. How good it is to realize the fact that when con-tracting parties come with due deliber. institutionize the child, that hampers one's freedom and compels support; the easy destruction of the home and consequent demoralization, of all agencies that do so much to safeguard a man in his moral life.

"It is an essential part of the teach tracting parties come with due deliber-ation to be married and before the civil ing of Christ that the unit of society is the family. This fact has been affirmed by the great Christian church during the many centuries since it was first enunciated and modern knowledge and research have not distodged it from law and in the presence of the church express their desire to be man and wife, a divine hand puts the seal on the hand clasp and no one but a divine power its place among the indisputable facts an break that seal. Hopper of Moncton having been appointed his successor by the bishop of the diocese, such as a Sunday School Teachers' and Rev. A. F. Burt of Shediac being elected secretary of the deanery in the place of the new rural dean who for several years has held that office. An affectionate address was presented by all the clergy in the deanery to the retiring rural dean, to which a cort suitable reply was made. The ad-dress and reply are as follows: After a few personal remarks the addres read as follows: "Your deep devotion, your wide tolerance, your unremitting fidelity 'in season and out of season' to the welfare and establishment of our beloved church, not only in our deanery, but in the diocese at large, has ever been to us a pattern and guide and our delight to emulate. Your wide experience and varied knowledge of all things appertaining to the sacred office of a priest have in a special manner enabled you to act as a most prudent counsellor to the individual clergy of the deanery, who on this occasion desire to express to you their deep thankfulness.

In this connection let me thank you for your reference to the happy unity that has marked each of the mule than eighty Embertide gatherings which have been held during my long tenure of office, but the true secret of this lies in your constant forbearance and hearty co-operation.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 26 .- A two square mile timber limit in Young's Cove, Grand Lake, was sold at the crown land office today to the St. John Sulphite Pulp Company at $55 a mile. A company with a capital of one million dollars is being organized here to manufacture and sell kerosene heaters and lamps lately invented by F. F. Dow of this city. The name of the company is the "Canadian Kero plicants, who are also the first and provisional directors, are Fred F. Dow, inventor: John Kilburn, lumberman; John R. McConnell, lumberman; John Palmer, manufacturer, and Albert J. Gregory, barrister at law, all of Fredericton. The capital stock is one million dollars divided into ten thousand shares of one hundred each. The office and chief place of business is Fredericton. Dow heaters and lamps are both constructed on the principle of conveying kerosene oil under pressure through a small tube to a flame lamp or heater, which converts the oil into vapor. This is mixed with air and burns with great brilliancy and generates intense heat. The burner is used poses. Dow has a contract for lighting the new skating rink this winter. The lamps and heaters are to be manufactured here by a company now being organized.

LONDON, Nov. 27 .- In the house of commons today Mr. Hanbury, president of the Board of Agraculture, announced that the Argentine govern-ment had within the last day or two introduced a bill bringing the live stock no attempt to reply to your personal references, so overflowing as they are with loving kindness, for I have no spection of cattle.
