

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

MILLTOWN, July 6.—The regular meeting of the town council was held last evening, Mayor McAllister presiding. The clerk read a communication from S. Mack, Mills, L.L.D., in connection with the water street crossing of the C. P. R. branch running into the cotton mill yard. The communication was placed on file. A petition was read from the residents of the town asking for a sewer to be built up that street, a motion that as the town council could not at once comply with the prayer of the petitioners, the matter be filed for future consideration, was passed. In regard to the petition for a sewer, the clerk has notified the owner of the condition of the building and asked that something be done about the matter.

A communication from Geo. Clarke, representing the owners of the Libbey house, stated that the town would be held liable to damages if the building was torn down, and as the council did not want it torn down, but repaired, the matter was placed on file.

The treasurer's report for the month of June, as follows, was accepted:

Tax collections for 1902.....	$7 50
Tax collections for 1903.....	15 50
Tax collections for 1904.....	35 10
Tax collections for 1905.....	230 05
Total from taxes.....	$331 10
Received from clerk.....	$5 00
Received for rent of road machine.....	4 00
Total receipts.....	$340 10

Town orders amounting to $1,642.83 were paid and charged as follows: Lights, $72.50; police, $185; poor, $112.57; fire, $147.50; roads, $83.16; salaries, $98; public property, $12.92; Scott Act, $37.50; incidental, $20.46; sewers, $58.02; and schools, $1,000. $238.49 was deposited in the bank.

A motion that the chairman of the E. Harris' tax for 1901, which year he was away, be referred to the assessment committee, was carried.

Motions were carried that the report of the assessment committee be received and that clerk notify the treasurer of abatements and that a committee of three be appointed by the mayor to receive tenders for the building of a culvert across Haggerty Brook, Church street. His worship chas. Counsellors Butler, Casey and Smith as the committee.

Coun. Butler suggested that the changing of the by-law pertaining to sewers, from $5 to $10 as entrance fee, be considered at the next meeting. The council were in favor of the suggestion.

The clerk informed the council that several persons had made entrance to the sewer main without the necessary license. Motions were carried that the marshal be authorized to make connections with the sewer without first obtaining a license; that the clerk be allowed a commission of 10 per cent for the collection of unpaid entrance fees; that the treasurer be authorized to receive tenders for the building of a culvert across Haggerty Brook, Church street. His worship chas. Counsellors Butler, Casey and Smith as the committee.

The report of the auditing committee was accepted, and sums for the general accounts ordered to be drawn on the treasurer and charged as follows: Poor, $100.69; public property, $12.92; lighting streets, $72.50; sewers, $58.02; roads, $140.88; salaries, $98; assessment and auditing, $63.30; Scott Act, $37.50; and incidental, $20.46, making a total of $730.83.

Coun. Smith suggested that the town building in Ward 3, on Queen street, be repaired, and thought that it might be made a temporary lockup, thus saving the police station and the town a long trip to make be an arrest. Council adjourned.

Mrs. Walter Graham arrived home yesterday after a few months' visit to the Adirondacks. Mrs. Graham is much improved in health.

Miss Kate McKenzie left yesterday for Portland, after having visited her mother, Mrs. McKenzie, Queen street.

Rev. John Pinkerton left this evening for C. P. R. for Welsford, where his ministerial labor for the future lies. His mother, Mrs. Pinkerton, and sister, Miss Bessie, leave Saturday to join him. Mr. Pinkerton's large circle of friends wish him a prosperous career in his chosen profession, but his departure, also his mother's and sister's, from this place is much regretted.

Mrs. Jas. Ross arrived home yesterday from a very pleasant visit to Vancouver.

SUBSIDIARY, N. B., July 6.—At the meeting of the town council last evening the water street crossing of the C. P. R. branch running into the cotton mill yard was discussed. A motion that as the town council could not at once comply with the prayer of the petitioners, the matter be filed for future consideration, was passed. In regard to the petition for a sewer, the clerk has notified the owner of the condition of the building and asked that something be done about the matter.

A communication from Geo. Clarke, representing the owners of the Libbey house, stated that the town would be held liable to damages if the building was torn down, and as the council did not want it torn down, but repaired, the matter was placed on file.

The treasurer's report for the month of June, as follows, was accepted:

Tax collections for 1902.....	$7 50
Tax collections for 1903.....	15 50
Tax collections for 1904.....	35 10
Tax collections for 1905.....	230 05
Total from taxes.....	$331 10
Received from clerk.....	$5 00
Received for rent of road machine.....	4 00
Total receipts.....	$340 10

Town orders amounting to $1,642.83 were paid and charged as follows: Lights, $72.50; police, $185; poor, $112.57; fire, $147.50; roads, $83.16; salaries, $98; public property, $12.92; Scott Act, $37.50; incidental, $20.46; sewers, $58.02; and schools, $1,000. $238.49 was deposited in the bank.

A motion that the chairman of the E. Harris' tax for 1901, which year he was away, be referred to the assessment committee, was carried.

Motions were carried that the report of the assessment committee be received and that clerk notify the treasurer of abatements and that a committee of three be appointed by the mayor to receive tenders for the building of a culvert across Haggerty Brook, Church street. His worship chas. Counsellors Butler, Casey and Smith as the committee.

Coun. Butler suggested that the changing of the by-law pertaining to sewers, from $5 to $10 as entrance fee, be considered at the next meeting. The council were in favor of the suggestion.

The clerk informed the council that several persons had made entrance to the sewer main without the necessary license. Motions were carried that the marshal be authorized to make connections with the sewer without first obtaining a license; that the clerk be allowed a commission of 10 per cent for the collection of unpaid entrance fees; that the treasurer be authorized to receive tenders for the building of a culvert across Haggerty Brook, Church street. His worship chas. Counsellors Butler, Casey and Smith as the committee.

The report of the auditing committee was accepted, and sums for the general accounts ordered to be drawn on the treasurer and charged as follows: Poor, $100.69; public property, $12.92; lighting streets, $72.50; sewers, $58.02; roads, $140.88; salaries, $98; assessment and auditing, $63.30; Scott Act, $37.50; and incidental, $20.46, making a total of $730.83.

Coun. Smith suggested that the town building in Ward 3, on Queen street, be repaired, and thought that it might be made a temporary lockup, thus saving the police station and the town a long trip to make be an arrest. Council adjourned.

Mrs. Walter Graham arrived home yesterday after a few months' visit to the Adirondacks. Mrs. Graham is much improved in health.

Miss Kate McKenzie left yesterday for Portland, after having visited her mother, Mrs. McKenzie, Queen street.

Rev. John Pinkerton left this evening for C. P. R. for Welsford, where his ministerial labor for the future lies. His mother, Mrs. Pinkerton, and sister, Miss Bessie, leave Saturday to join him. Mr. Pinkerton's large circle of friends wish him a prosperous career in his chosen profession, but his departure, also his mother's and sister's, from this place is much regretted.

Mrs. Jas. Ross arrived home yesterday from a very pleasant visit to Vancouver.

have had a very nice lawn tennis court added.

The R. C. picnic held yesterday by Father Savage was well attended and a very pleasant time was spent by all present. Over $400 was cleared.

ST. ANDREWS, July 6.—The flow of the tide of summer visitors to St. Andrews has set in. Among the arrivals today by C. P. R. were James Sherriff and his sister Miss Margaret and Jane Bloomfield, Carleton Place. They are lodging at Mrs. J. R. Bradford's, Water street.

Rupert D. Hanson, principal of the Grammar School, and his son came into town today from Bonaville, where he is visiting his mother, Mrs. R. Burpee Hanson.

Plus O'Neill of New York is visiting his parents, Charles and Mrs. O'Neill, Queen street.

Rev. Fathers Blake and Doran of Boston while on vacation took in the forty-first anniversary of the incorporation of the church at Doucet's Island, St. Croix river, dropped and St. Andrews to call on Rev. Father O'Flaherty, who drove them to the different points of interest in the town and suburbs.

P. W. Thompson, managing director of the Ogilvie flour mills, Mrs. Thompson, three daughters and maid of Montreal arrived by C. P. R. They are located in Algonquin Cottage No. 1, E. King Green, Mrs. Green and their two sons, Montreal, came by the C. P. R. and registered at the Algonquin.

Mrs. George R. Hooper is installed in the Grammar School, west end of Carleton street.

HOPEWELL HILL, July 7.—In the Baptist church last evening Miss Gracie Allen, eldest daughter of William McGorman of this place, was married to Edgar Richard Allen, railway mail clerk, of Campbellton, Rev. Dr. Brown, pastor of the church, officiating. The large church, which was completely filled, was decorated for the occasion with potted plants and arches of ferns and daisies and a floral bell under which the bride couple stood. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a handsome wedding gown of white duchesse satin, with a high collar and long sleeves, and a long train. She carried a large bouquet of white and orange blossoms, and was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Jane McGorman, Ernest Allen, brother of the groom, acted as best man. As the wedding party entered the church the wedding march was played by Miss Cella I. F. Peck. The ushers were Wm. J. McGorman, brother of the groom, and Mr. C. P. R. After the ceremony the bride party and guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was held. The newly married couple, who will have the best wishes of many friends, left this morning on a wedding trip to Boston, after which they will take up their residence in Campbellton.

The county Orangemen are making preparations to celebrate the "Glorious Twelfth" at Hopewell Cape, under the auspices of Cape Rookes Lodge, No. 128. All of the lodges in the county are expected to be present, and the Orange band will furnish music.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. C. M. Lawson of Salisbury are visiting friends here.

Mrs. H. B. Peck of St. John is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peck at the Hill.

Edgar Woodworth of Woonsocket, R. I., visited his old home at Chemical Point, this week, after an absence of thirteen years.

The schooner E. Merriam came into the wharf yesterday to load plaster for the New England Adamant Co.

ST. ANDREWS, July 7.—Mrs. Justice Street, Toronto, arrived today, after an absence of three days.

Dr. Addy, Chipman, and Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

Dr. H. B. Hay, Woodstock are attending him.

takes its name from the fact that it is the last of the season.

Years, his funeral was held today at St. Paul's church, Rev. Mr. Wainwright, rector of Kingston, officiating. The church was crowded with relatives and sympathizing friends.

Mr. White's eldest daughter, Mrs. Prince of this place, died only a few weeks ago, and two of his brothers have died during the last eighteen months. He leaves a widow, a daughter and an adopted son.

Some necessary repairs are being made on the exterior of St. Paul's church, which is very tastefully finished in the interior.

The R. C. chapel at Chapel Grove is undergoing quite extensive repairs.

All crops in this vicinity except hay are in a forward state. The trial of hay will be lighter than usual.

SACKVILLE, N. B., July 9.—Dr. Borden left today for a short trip to Bermondsey, Archibald is taking the helm in his absence.

Mrs. Andrews gave a very pleasant tea Friday afternoon to some of the ladies attending the School of Methods, Miss Margaret Wainwright, who has been visiting at the Ladies' College, today to see relatives in Nova Scotia.

Miss Lillian Hart, a recent graduate in nursing of Victoria, Montreal, arrived in Sackville last week and expects to leave tomorrow for her home, Rev. Thos. Hart, at Sanborn, N. S.

Principal J. M. Palmer, who has returned from his tour of inspection in New York, has resumed his duties at the Commercial, who is now in London, and who expects to spend the rest of his vacation in England.

Geo. A. Trueman, teacher of mathematics and English, and G. A. Collette, teacher of science, will not return to the academy staff. Mr. Trueman's place has not yet been filled. Mr. Collette's position will be taken by George A. Shepherson, son of Rev. John W. Shepherson of Millville, N. S.

Ogden, Inspector of Fisheries, Bedford, N. S., who has been spending a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today. The absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

this afternoon to the Presbyterian cemetery at Bonaville.

Wm. J. Emerson of Boston, is the guest of R. O'Leary.

Father Verrier of St. Charles, is holding his annual picnic today.

An old man, seventy old was found a few mornings ago in a basket on the side of the road at Kouchibouguac. The residents heard a team driving and the night before, and after an examination of the road was made it was found that a rubber-tired buggy had come from the direction of Chatham and turned there and gone back. The child had evidently been dragged. James Carter, of Kouchibouguac, aged thirty-five years, is dead after two weeks' illness from paralysis. He leaves a wife and family.

Miss Burdett of Fredericton is visiting the Misses Green, Miss Maud Grierson, trained nurse, has returned to Boston.

Three Indians, who came down from the north a few days ago, made things lively at the Indian reserve, Big Cove. They were arrested and brought before R. H. Davis, stipendiary magistrate, who gave them a term in jail. The way they were secured at Campbellton and Bathurst, and the names of the parties from whom it was purchased are known to the authorities.

David Munde's barn, situated a short distance north of the town, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The heavy rains of the past week had watered the ground very much.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

In the absence of Pastor Macdonald, who has gone to Cape Breton to spend a month camping out near his old home, Rev. Frank Baird of Sussex occupied the pulpit of St. John's church at both services today.

Rev. H. A. Meek, rector of St. Mary's church, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

MONCTON, July 10.—The members of the three city branches of the "Glorious Twelfth" this year by assembling at their lodge room this morning to give a body to the Free Baptist church, where the pastor, Rev. Gideon Swin, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

NOTICE OF SALE.