

AMERICAN AND NATIONAL GAMES WON AND LOST

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Washington, April 15.—Philadelphia, no game, rain.

New York, 3; Boston, 2.

Boston, April 15.—Hits for extra bases gave New York a 2-1 victory over the world's champions today. Keating, the Highlanders' recruit pitcher, twirled in fine form after the first inning.

Chase played a star game at second base, making his first assist of the season at that position when he scooped Gardner's fast grounder in the sixth and made a lightning throw to first. Fears that Chase's arm had been seriously injured in practice yesterday were dissipated by his work today.

Score: New York . . . 011100000—3 7 2

Boston . . . 00000000—2 8 0

Keating and Sweeney, Hall and Munaker.

Detroit Shut Out.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 15.—Fred Falkenberg, secured this spring by Cleveland, from Toledo, shut out Detroit today while Cleveland secured eleven hits off Boehler and won 9-0. Boehler, a recruit, was wild, hitting three men and giving passes to six. Jackson, Cleveland's slugger, was hit on the head by a pitched ball and stunned for a moment. Falkenberg pitched great ball, only one Detroit player reaching third base. Score: Cleveland . . . 00105102x—9 11 1

Detroit . . . 00000000—0 8 2

Falkenberg and Carlsch, O'Neill, Bohler and Stanage.

Chicago, 5; St. Louis, 3.

St. Louis, April 15.—Chicago defeated St. Louis today 5 to 3. Walsh, although hit hard at times, held the locals safe where they had an opportunity to tie the score. Chicago scored in the third, on a base on balls, and Williams' error on Lord's easy fly. In the fourth Chicago added two more on two infield errors, and infield hit and Schalks double. Chicago brought their total up to five in the fifth on Rath's walk, and single and Boston's double. Williams' double and Pratt's single in the fourth scored St. Louis' first run. In the seventh St. Louis scored on a base on balls, a double, and Johnston's single. In this inning Walsh struck out the next three men. Score:

MAY HOLD GOLF TITLE AGAIN

J. D. Travers, the national golf champion of 1912, will likely again hold the title this year.

M'KECHNIE NOW WITH NEW YORK

New York, April 15.—Infeld W. B. McKechnie was released today from the Boston Nationals by Manager Frank Chance of the New York American League Club. It was announced at the club's offices tonight. McKechnie will be used as a utility man. He played with Pittsburgh in 1911 and part of 1912, going to St. Paul, of the American Association; and then to Boston. He occupied the outfield for the Bostonians when they defeated the Giants in the opening game here last Thursday. Manager Stallings could not use him in the Boston infield and asked for waivers. Chance promptly filed his claims. McKechnie will report here on Thursday.

HE TELLS WHAT IS A PRIZE FIGHT

Milwaukee, April 15.—"I have noticed many articles of late," says A. B. Nichols, the head of a local commission firm, "regarding prizefighting and boxing, and I want to say that there is all the difference in the world between the two—as much difference as there is between night and day. I will give you an idea of the real article. It was in 1873, if I remember rightly, that I was living in St. Louis, and the boys were interested in a prize fight between Tom Allen, the Englishman, and Mike McCoolle, the American. They had met before and understood that Allen had been robbed of the decision, and another match was made.

"It took place up the river on one of the big river boats. They fought with bare knuckles under the old London prize ring rules. The round did not end until one man was knocked down and then they rested only 30 seconds. For seven rounds Allen battered McCoolle's face and he was a sight, while Allen was unmarked. Finally McCoolle was battered into a senseless mass and his seconds carried him away on a stretcher. That was a real prize fight and without gloves, padded ring, etc., such as they have nowadays. Since then I have attended many contests in this and other cities, but under the new rules and with gloves, I have seen many here in Milwaukee and must say that the present-day boxing is like a pillow fight between two children compared to that fight I saw in St. Louis.

"To my way of thinking the present-day bouts are real boxing contests and nothing more, and you cannot make anything else of them. The big mistake is made, the boys are padded, the rounds are limited to two or three minutes with a minute rest between each round, and the referee stops the bout the moment one shows his superiority over the other, making it a clean sparring contest. I did object to my son playing football when he was in school, but I never objected to him boxing. There are less accidents in boxing than in any other form of sport, outside of tennis or ping-pong, for I have followed it closely and know whereof I speak.

"It is my honest opinion that the

International League Opens Today, Play Ball

This is getaway day for the International league, Edward Grant Barrow's great organization of baseball talent, and, unless all signs fail, it is going to be "some race." The 1912 champions Toronto, naturally want to repeat, and Rochester, having formed the pennant habit in previous years, is just as anxious to come back. Baltimore, the metropolis of the circuit, which knew the glories of the major league Orioles is filled with fans clamorous for another flag, and the management is doing its best to oblige. Five teams, according to their managers, are reasonably certain to finish in the first division.

Ed Barrow, the president of the International league, is one of the ablest dictators that ever ruled a baseball league circuit. Before he reached his present position he was successfully printer's devil, cub reporter, manufacturer of soap, hotel clerk and manager, instructor in boxing, fight promoter, bush league pitcher, and manager of a big league club. Never a player, he was yet always interested in baseball, and the game has ever been the greatest passion of his life. In his younger days, as an amateur, he was a crack boxer, and he has faced in friendly bouts such professionals as Jack McAuliffe, Bob Fitzsimmons, Peter Maher and Denver Ed Smith. Barrow was for some time the manager of the old Staley Hotel, in Pittsburgh. Later he had the scorecard privilege of the Smoky City ball yard. In 1897 and the two years following he was president of the Atlantic league, and conducted fight clubs in Philadelphia during the winter months. With Jake Wells, the old-time ball player, Barrow built the first vaudeville theatre in Richmond, Va. Altogether, the career of the International league chief has been one of varied interests and spectacular commercial adventure. He has gone broke many times, and as often has refused to become a millionaire because of his love for the rolling stone life.

The International league has as good a bunch of managers as either of the majors. Joe McGinnity's defection leaves Newark which finished third last year, a somewhat unknown factor. Joe Kelley, who grabbed the flag for Ontario in 1912, is still at the helm. Gansel continues as the peerless leader of the ex-champion Rochester, and Jack Dunn again heads the Baltimore bunch. Clymer at Buffalo, Brandfield at Montreal, Smith at Newark, Schaffly at Jersey City and Donovan at Providence completes the managerial roster.

NEW BALL LEAGUE.

New York, April 15.—Launching of the New York and New Jersey league, recently organized, was assured today with the filing of bonds of $1,000 each by the league's six clubs, Paterson and Long Branch, N. J., and Middletown, Kingston, Poughkeepsie and Newburgh, N. Y. This amount covers $600 posted to cover half the player's salary limit, as required under the rules of the National Association of Minor Leagues, and $400 as a guarantee of good faith. Danbury, Conn., and Peekskill, New York, will probably be admitted to the league if proper bonds are filed.

WAS WEAK AND RUN DOWN. NOT ABLE TO DO HER WORK.

Many women get run down, and are unable to look after their household duties, owing to their nervous system becoming unstrung. Day in and day out they have to go through the same routine of work, sweeping, dusting, cooking, etc. No wonder their work gets on the nerves and they become run down.

When a woman gets into this state there is only one thing for her to do, and that is, to get something that will build up her system.

For this purpose there is not an equal to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Their restorative action is felt on every organ and tissue of the body, and in a short time the weakness will give place to strength and vitality, and make life worth living.

Mrs. Henry McIntosh, Oliver, N.S., writes:—"I would recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills to anyone who is weak and run down. I was not able to do my work, nor rest at night for four years. After taking seven boxes, I am entirely cured, and can recommend them to anyone suffering from heart or nerve trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box; 3 boxes for $1.25, as all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of order by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

AN ENGLISH BOXER HAS CHALLENGE

The following challenge is self-explanatory:

To Sporting Editor Standard:—Dear Sir,—Ted Fitchett, England, at present in St. John, is open to box any middleweight or light heavyweight in New Brunswick or Nova Scotia. Dan Macdonald preferred.

TED FITCHETT.

[It may be stated that the Dan McDonald who won the wrestling match Monday night from Norman Taylor, is not the Dan McDonald who won the recent boxing championship at Boston. The boxer formerly resided in New Glasgow, N. S., but has for some time been a resident in the States.]

WEATHER CONDITIONS UNFAVORABLE

New York, April 15.—With threatening weather all over the east, the outlook is not bright for good baseball conditions to greet the teams of the International League tomorrow when the playing season of that organization begins. Otherwise the prospects of the league, which in the past ranks next in importance to the majors, are excellent for the season. President Barrow declaring that he expects a prosperous year in the organization with the race a close one.

For the opening Montreal is scheduled to play in Providence, Toronto in Newark, Buffalo in Jersey City, and Rochester in Baltimore.
