FREE EVENING SCHOOL TO OPEN
Will be Held in King Edward and Centennial Schools for Men and Boys—Opening on Monday Next.
On Monday evening, September 29th, the local School Board will open the free evening schools for boys and men in the King Edward School, corner of St. James and Wentworth streets, there will be classes in reading, writing, spelling and arithmetic. In the Centennial building, on Brunswick street, mechanical drawing will be taught.
These schools afford a splendid opportunity for boys and men to improve their education and thereby increase their earning capacity, and no doubt large numbers will take advantage of this generous offer. Parents who have sons with a limited education should urge them to enter. Those who have never attended school will be gladly received and taught to read, write and spell. Arithmetic and writing will receive special attention.
A fee of two dollars ($2.00) is collected from each pupil on enrollment. This, however, is refundable on the basis of attendance. If a pupil does not miss any time his entire fee is returned to him at the end of the year. About one-half of his fee is returned pro-viding he attends half the year.
In past years many business men strongly recommended the free night schools to boys and men in their employ who were handicapped in life by lack of education. Following this advice, many enrolled in the school and in the course of a few months their services became more valuable to their employers and consequently they received increases in their salaries.
Those who wish to enroll should pay their fee of two dollars to Mr. A. Gordon Leavitt, Secretary of the School Board, Union Street, or to either of the instructors, Rex R. Cormier, Principal of the King Edward School, or A. G. Gutter, Principal of the Manual Training School.
Returned soldiers are extended a special invitation to attend these classes.

WEDDINGS
Special to The Standard.
Special to The Standard—Kelley.
St. Stephen, N. B., Sept. 24—A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at the Church of the Holy Rosary, Rev. Father O'Flaherty officiating. The principals were Miss Julia Alice Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley, of St. Stephen, and William R. Armstrong, of Milwout, N. B.
The young couple were attended by Miss Helen Kelley, sister of the bride, and Alexander Boyd, of this town. The bride looked very charming in a suit of navy blue serge, with picture hat, and carried a white prayer book, while the bridesmaid's dress was of peccan blue.
After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which the young couple left by auto for an extended honeymoon through Maine.
The presents were very beautiful and numerous, testifying to the esteem in which both bride and groom were held on the border.
