Dear Mr. Cohen,

May I avail myself of the present season to extend to you my best wishes for Christmas and the New Year; and at the same time to express anew my appreciation of your many courtesies during the year just drawing to a close.

Among the number, I am not unmindful of the copies of your writings, which you have so generously favoured me with, and the telegram of congratulations you so kindly sent at the time of my election to the leadership of the Liberal party in this country.

These expressions of your confidence and good-will have, I assure you, been deeply appreciated.

With all good wishes, believe me

Yours very sincerely,

Mr. Julius Henry Cohen
