

072073

- 2 -

an organized effort will be made to get at the task and get it done.

There should also be activity in the way of holding public meetings and stirring up interest in the Conservative policy. This, I understand, the Club has now in mind, and I sincerely trust that no time will be lost in getting into action in this regard. When the Government contemplates an election I don't think they know themselves, but the general opinion is that we may look for a contest not later than the coming fall and perhaps sooner.

Yours very truly,

MEIGHEN PAPERS, Series 3 (M.G. 26, I, Volume 122)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA