

English

I hear you.

Come here;

I am coming.

What kind of a hunt had the Fox last winter?

The winter was bad indeed.

What did he hunt for?

Bear.

I wish this was spring, and all the Indians would come and trade their winter's hunt;

They will come soon:

I think they will have a great many packs.

What will you ask to take me by water from Montreal to Michillimakinac?

One large keg of rum, one gun, one blanket, one kettle,
and one knife; that is all I want:

[294]

That is too much, as you will eat and drink the same as us, and will not work, but only shew the way.

Will you go directly?

No, I shall stay till to-morrow, and then embark.

I left my wife and children at a place four days march from hence.

I want to see them.

To-morrow, at the dawn of day, we will embark.

Take courage; farewell, friend.

Very well, I will be true to my word.

All is quiet.

I will go to bed.

Get up, friend.

I am lazy.
