

that is to be." The Christ of evolution and not the Christ of revelation.

This man is foretold by Paul.

"That man of sin * * * the son of perdition: who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God."—II Thessalonians, 2:3-4.

He is the man of whom our Lord said that he should come "in his own name."—John, 5:43.

He is the man of whom John speaks—the Antichrist.

"He is the Antichrist, that denies the Father and the Son."—I. John, 2:22.

This is the prophecy of the future:

Within the limits of the old Roman empire there will be a parliament of the nations, an assembly of ten kings. Out of this parliament of the nations will come the man of sin—the Antichrist.

Certain movements indicate that the world is getting ready for this parliament of nations.

It has been proposed recently, and seriously, by leaders in the Turkish revolution, that a parliament of the great world powers be convened. Each nation is to send its representative king or governor. Constantinople, as being central to the West and the East, is suggested as the historic meeting place. These nations in representative assembly of kings
