This is one of the oldest of our Junior Leagues in Canada. For ten years Mrs. W. T. Gibbard has been the faithful superintendent, and much beloved by the many Juniors who have come under her careful and wise leadership. The League meets on Sunday afternoon at 2.30, and holds an occasional social week-evening service. The Weekly Topics are always studied and bright singing, with Miss Myrtle Stevens at the piano, and numerous prayers and other exercises by the members, go to make up a good meeting. Willie Robinson is secretary—So writes the pastor, Rev. S. T. Bartlett.

In the Junior League at Burlington we have eighty-five members and six committees—Missionary, Look-out, Relief, Flower, Temperance, Band of Mercy. In December we had a Christmas tree, and distributed presents to some eighty children of the village. A good many of these presents were made by the Juniors, who met at the church every Saturday afternoon for several weeks. We are making a missionary quilt of white cotton, and are working names on it with red thread. The charge for each name is five cents. We have already five dollars. When it is completed we intend sending the money to the missionaries, and the quilt to the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto. We supply the flowers for the Sunday-school each week, and afterwards they are sent to the sick. We support ourselves by a monthly collection, and are much interested in our work—Lucy Ghent, Secretary.

Unionville "Buds of Promise."

The Junior League meets every Sunday afternoon at the close of the Sunday-school, with a membership of fifty. We have three committees working—Look-out, Missionary, Social. The topics are taken each week by members of the League, as subjects are given in The Epworth Era. One of the encouragements in our work, is the way in which even the smallest child will respond at the roll-call with a verse of Scripture. Last year two quilts were made by the Juniors, and five dollars given to the Forward Movement. We are thankful for God's presence with us in our meetings, and wish to do all we can to advance his kingdom on earth.—Arthur Brown, Secretary.

Norfolk Street, Guelph, Ont.

Mr. Cassidy, our pastor, and Miss Oldham, our superintendent, organized the League about a year ago, and although we had to stop for the summer on account of the renovation of the church, we are fully started again, and now have a membership of about one hundred. We have a printed pledge that hangs in the front of the room, so that all may see, and, side by side with it, hangs our motto, "Christ our Captain." We elected new officers at the beginning of December, and appointed a committee, composed of four young ladies from the Senior League, to help us. These young ladies take charge of the programmes in turns, and take as their subjects—Consecration, Missionary, Temperance, and Literary, and a fifth Friday (our League night) is devoted to Social. We have sent flowers to our hospital, and then we made a special effort, and raised over twenty dollars, and helped to pay for the pulpit chairs.—Annie G. Moore, President.

New Century Perfect Speaker

A Canadian Book. The only book of the kind ever published by Canadians for Canadians. Compiled by John A. Cooper, Editor of the Canadian Magazine, Toronto, assisted by leading statesmen and educationists of the Dominion. Six hundred and sixty pages; one hundred full-page engravings, seven and a half by ten inches in size. We have been careful not to duplicate the selections in the school readers. Our selections cover a wide range and are superior to those contained in any other similar book, containing everything suitable and obtainable of a Canadian origin. Recitations, Dialogues, Children's Department, Tableaux, with instructions how to sit, pose, drill, stand, march, keep healthy, make gestures, develop the body and develop the voice.

Beautiful women and great lecturers have posed in appropriate costumes to represent various emotions, including Forgiveness, Revenge, Fear, Curiosity, Expectation, Simplicity, Independence, Appeal, Warning, Anticipation, Waiting, Command, Meditation, Merriment, Anger, Worship, etc., etc., a separate pose and a single person representing each one. Each of these makes a full-page engraving and they are of a quality superior to anything ever seen in a similar work.

The Orators Department is simply grand. It includes full-page engravings, with biographical sketches underneath, of forty of the world's greatest orators, five British, twenty-two Canadians, and thirteen American. Then follows the best portion of a declamation. Of the Orators now living several have selected the speech for us to use.

Then we have the Etiquette Department, more valuable for Canadians than any other heretofore published. The portion referring to the Official Etiquette of Ottawa has been corrected or approved by Captain Graham, Secretary to the Governor-General, and by Lady Laurier. The Etiquette Department is complete as to all rules governing social and business life. Very complete as to proper cards for all occasions, sample cards being given, new and up-to-date. Directions are given as to the proper address and signature for all kinds of letters to people in all the various stations of life. Rules and advice as to dress, manners, visitors, entertaining, calling, etc., etc. Also complete rules and by-laws governing debating societies and all public gatherings.

Send for sample pages, sample engravings, also table of contents and lists of illustrations, all of which will be mailed to you free of charge. You can make many dollars and do a great amount of good taking orders for this work. The first copy to each Epworth League will be furnished at a special cut rate as a means of introducing the work.
