

IRISH FREE STATE AND PROTESTANTS

By J. H. Cox
(Dublin Correspondent, N. C. W. C.)
The Protestants of Southern Ireland are manifesting a real appreciation of the tolerance and fellowship which is being shown to them by their Catholic fellow-citizens...

It is gratifying to observe, however, that the sections of the South are ready to acknowledge the benefits it enjoys. At the General Synod of the Protestant Church, held in Dublin, graceful references were made to the spirit that animates the Catholic majority in Southern Ireland...

"Our duty," he said, "is to man every gap, to fill every vacancy with men nurtured in the spirit of patriotism, men who will be honest, intelligent, and devoted to the public weal."

CHINESE PRIEST CELEBRATES FIRST SOLEMN MASS

The chapel of St. Francis Xavier China Mission Seminary was crowded to the doors on the morning of June 7th when Father Paul P. Kam sang his first solemn High Mass.

An Anglican until he was eighteen years of age, Father Kam was converted to the Catholic Church by Father Fraser in Taichow, China. He came to Canada with Father Fraser in August, 1918, when the latter was preparing to establish the seminary for the foreign missions in this country...

WHAT IS BEING DONE FOR CATHOLIC YOUTH

Brooklyn, N. Y.—The Redemptorist auditorium at 59th Street, Brooklyn, was the scene of an inspiring ceremony when Captains Vincent Tubert of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Branch Catholic Boys Brigade was presented with the sash of the Noble Guard which is an association of Brigade officers who have meritorious service to their credit...

"Nowadays we hear so much about all-kinds of organizations of young men and boys but very little about Catholic organizations. The reason is because many Catholics who pose as leaders in boy work are ignorant of existing conditions. It is not true that Catholics do little for the young in social matters. It may be the case in some places, but it is not so everywhere. If numbers count for anything I may just mention a few organizations that are found in a report issued last fall. They are organizations of youth comprising young men and boys: Argentina, 4,000 members; Belgium, 80,000; Czechoslovakia, 160,000 members; France, 140,000; Great Britain, 30,000; Mexico, 7,000; Poland, 100,000; Austria, 40,000; Colombia, 25,000; Bohemia, 13,000; Germany, 451,200; Italy, 300,000; Netherlands, 26,000; and Switzerland, 15,000."

International Catholic Youth movement. There is no doubt that if all the Catholic organizations existing in the countries enumerated would have been listed the numbers would be multiplied several times. In the United States, The Catholic Young Men's National Union, the Gonzaga Union and the Catholic Boys Brigade represent over 250,000 youths. These figures show what Catholics have accomplished and can accomplish by loyalty to the Catholic cause.

OBITUARY

RICHARD SHEEHY
Peter Cox Examiner, June 8
An announcement that came as a distinct shock to the city this morning was that of the death in the early hours of this morning of Richard Sheehy, Senior. The late Mr. Sheehy, who has been a prominent member of the life of this community for many years, suffered from a sudden attack of angina pectoris at noon on Saturday, and lingered until about twenty minutes past two o'clock this morning, when he passed away at his residence, 751 George Street, the former home of the late Hon. J. R. Stratton, purchased by the deceased some years ago. He was sixty-six years of age.

Mr. Sheehy was born in County Tipperary, Ireland. He came out to Canada in 1893, and has resided in Peterboro for practically the entire period since that time, with the exception of two or three years spent in residence at different times in California. He was a member of the local Council of the Knights of Columbus, and president of the St. Alphonsus Lyceum Association. He was interested in a quiet but always effective fashion in civic and charitable endeavors of many sorts, and took an unobtrusive part in those things which worked for the good of the community in which he lived.

As founder and head of the Sheehy Construction Company, the late Mr. Sheehy has left behind him enduring monuments of the work of his hands. Of him it might be said that he "built well that which was good" for many handsome churches of the faith of which he was a loyal member stand as a memorial of his endeavors. Of the worldly substance which rewarded his efforts, he returned a portion toward the furtherance of good works. For the sound foundations of many a noble church, for the stout walls that will withstand for generations to come the shock of age and elements, for the careful planning and honest construction of numerous fine scholastic and community buildings, the late Mr. Sheehy was responsible. His memory will be preserved for many long years to come in enduring tablets of steel and brick and mortar, well and truly laid.

Among the buildings for which Mr. Sheehy and his sons were contractors were The Sacred Heart Church, the House of Providence, the Peterboro Collegiate Institute, the Henry Hope factory, the Church of St. Martin's at Ennismore, the Catholic church at Port Arthur, the Sacred Heart Church at Wolfe Island, St. Mary's Church at Campbellford, the Post Office at Deseronto, the Queen Mary school and the Prince Wales schools, the Colonial Weaving Company's factory, St. Lawrence church in Hamilton, St. Francis Church in Toronto, the Church of the Angel Guardian at Orillia, and additions to All Saints' Church, Mount St. Joseph, the Nicholls Hospital and St. Joseph's Hospital.

The late Mr. Sheehy who was also president of the Lakefield Lumber Company, was responsible for the construction of the first cement sidewalks in this city and had a great deal to do with civil drainage work. Survivors are his sorrowing wife, six sons: Dr. Richard Sheehy, Sarsfield, James, Michael, Emmet and Fergus and one daughter, Doreen, all of Peterboro. Three sisters and one brother also survive: Mrs. Margaret Flynn of Boston, Massachusetts, Mrs. Michael O'Brien of Toronto, Mrs. John Corkery, senior, of Peterboro, and James J. Sheehy of Chicago. Two nephews the Rev. Michael O'Brien and the Rev. Austin O'Brien were present at the funeral held at St. Peter's Cathedral when His Lordship Bishop O'Brien paid a warm tribute to the worth of the deceased as a citizen and as a Catholic. R. I. P.

MRS. ELLEN O'CONNOR
On the morning of May 15th there passed to her eternal reward an old and highly respected resident of Hamilton, Mrs. Ellen O'Connell, widow of the late Thomas O'Connell, and daughter of the late William and Bridget Cahill. Deceased was born in Dundas, but had resided in Hamilton all her life. She was one of the oldest and most active members of the St. Mary's Cathedral parish. A woman of sterling qualities, a fervent Catholic, a devoted mother, Mrs. O'Connell has left behind a host of friends who will revere her memory and pray for her eternal repose.

The funeral took place on Monday morning from her late residence, 60 Barton St. East, to St. Mary's Cathedral, where solemn Requiem High Mass was sung by the Right Rev. Mgr. O'Sullivan, assisted by Rev. Father Ryan, deacon and Rev. Father Clancy, sub-deacon. Rev. Father McBride conducted the services at the grave. Five sons and a grandson of the deceased acted as pallbearers. A family of five sons and two daughters mourn the loss of a loving mother: George and John R., Chicago; James S., of Ohio; Joseph and William of Hamilton; Mrs. Gregory Hughes, of Hamilton; and Sister Mary Hildegard, of the Ursuline College, Chatham, Ont. THOMAS JOY
Goderich Signal

One of our most highly respected residents passed to his reward when Thomas Joy died on Sunday, May 17. Mr. Joy was born in Ashfield in 1859 and with the exception of a few years spent in Detroit had lived here ever since. He enjoyed his usual good health up to last Monday, when he suffered a paralytic stroke and was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jas. Wallace. The family was summoned and all were present when on Sunday morning Mr. Joy passed away. The deceased was a devoted husband and a kind father. His jovial disposition and kindly nature made him a general favorite among old and young. Besides his widow, he is survived by ten children: Mrs. Wm. O'Brien, Maidstone; Mrs. Cecel Griffin, Mrs. Jno. O'Connor, Misses Gertrude, Eleanor and Marzaret, and Clarence, Tom and Leon, all of Detroit; eight grandchildren and one half-brother, Mr. Jos. Griffin, Goderich. The funeral took place to St. Joseph's cemetery, Kingsbridge, on May 19 and was very largely attended. Requiem Mass was chanted by Rev. Father Ford, Woodslee, a nephew of the deceased, and Rev. Father Dean, P. P., officiated at the grave. The pallbearers were his three sons, and Messrs. John O'Connor, Jim Wallace and Harry McCormack. R. I. P.

THE LITTLE FLOWER'S S. O. S.

"MISSIONARIES!—Yes we must have Missionaries!—that through them we may inflame the multitude of poor sinners with the love of God. O Jesus! I would fain be a missionary not only for a few years, but to the end of time." Our Catholic world today kneels at the foot of the altar of our dear little Missionary Saint. Her cry for Missionaries is heralded throughout the Church. As we know, she had prayed God to be allowed to "spend her Heaven doing good on earth." She lived for the Mission, she died for the Mission, she spends her heaven in caring for the Missionaries.

For one who loves souls and the Church, the agonizing problem is WILL THEY COME? Ask for information from SISTERS OF SERVICE, 2 Wellesley Place, Toronto.

FEELING THE PINCH OF PARTITION

Dublin, Ireland.—Economic disclosures are showing how severely the North East is experiencing the effects of Partition. Trade in Derry City has been badly injured as a result of the City's separation from the County of Donegal, which adjoins Derry but which is on the other side of the Border. The poultry and egg business is particularly important in Derry, but its present position is so critical, that a dozen of the biggest egg and poultry merchants feel that as a commercial necessity they must soon transfer their firms to the territory of Southern Ireland. Already one of the largest grocery stores in Derry has made the change and has gone boldly over to Donegal, closing down its Derry warehouse. Several of the biggest Derry establishments have had to reduce their staffs and close up portions of their premises. Other firms are employing their hands only on a day to day basis. The once great linen industry of the North-East is suffering most acutely of all, and many eminent industrial houses will soon, it is believed, be obliged to cease business. The Belfast Gazette, which is an official publication, contains winding-up notices regarding some very old companies, such as the Milford Weaving and Finishing Company of Belfast, which are passing into liquidation. Limitation of output is being adopted in the hope of relieving the slump.

CATHEDRAL OF WORMS MADE MINOR BASILICA

That venerable pile, the Cathedral of Worms, beloved of Germans because there hangs about it the glamor of the earliest Teutonic legends, has received a new honor. Pope Pius XI. just conferred on the ancient edifice the rank of a Basileia Minor. This gracious action came as a recognition of the 900th anniversary of Bishop Burchard, founder and builder of the cathedral. It carries with it all the rights and privileges enjoyed by basilicas of the same rank in Rome. At the same time, the Provost of the Cathedral of Worms, Dr. Schneider, has been appointed Prototutory Apostolic. He will be invested by the Bishop of Mainz. The old medieval pile was once destroyed but later was piously restored.

ST. ANTHONY'S CORNER

Will the Clients of St. Anthony, who have learned from their own experience how successful he has been in the past, patronize the Wonder-Worker's Special Novena at Graymoor? If we have found something of value in our own experience, it is really our duty to pass it on to others, that they also may benefit as well as we.

Anyone who reads with attention the thanksgivings rendered by grateful Clients for the remarkable answers to prayer they have obtained by having recourse to St. Anthony through the medium of our Graymoor Novena, must recognize that such answers are not purely accidental, and that there must be some real potency in the intercession of this Great Saint. The testimonials that appear from time to time are only a small fraction culled from hundreds of such thanksgiving acknowledgments that come to the Priests every month.
